Baker Probe Closed

Overtones To Echo In Campaigning

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has closed its Bobby Baker investigation but its political overtones are expected to echo in this fall's election campaign as Republicans have charged "the full story has not been disclosed."

The Senate Rules Committee rang down the curtain on the seven - month probe into the wheelings and dealings of the former Senate aide with a report Wednesday saying he was "guilty of many gross improprieties."

But it left it up to the Justice Department to determine whether Baker should be prosecuted for any violations of criminal law.

Robert G. Baker

The report was submitted to the Senate on behalf of the committee's Democratic majority by Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C.

A separate minority report turned in by the committee's three Republican members accused the Democratic majority of ignoring their "rights" to have additional witnesses called including White House aide Walter Jenkins, and charged a "cover-up."

Jenkins figured in testimony by Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent with whom Baker was associated and who sold two $100,000 life insurance policies to President Johnson before he became president.

The GOP members, however, said they had no major criticism of the analysis of the evidence in the majority report. "It does reveal gross wrongdoing, gross improprieties, and conduct which we believe to be unlawful," they said.

They said their criticism "is centered upon the fact that the majority refused to call all the witnesses and refused to get all the facts."

Children Killed In Car-Train Crash In Kansas

PARTRIDGE, Kan. (AP) — Three children were killed and five persons injured, two seriously, in a collision involving a car and a Rock Island mail trail on K61 near Partridge late Wednesday.

Seven of the eight persons in the car were members of the same family. They had celebrated the 13th birthday of Jon Smith, one of those killed, and were en route to the Y Ranch at Arlington, Kan., seven miles away, to go swimming. The children wore swim suits.

The others killed were Jon's 4 - year -old brother, Larry Smith, and a neighbor boy, Dannie Fornwalt, 12.

Two of the Smith girls were in serious condition at Grace Hospital in Hutchinson, Jeannette, 14, had a broken hip, numerous cuts and a broken jaw; Deborah, 9, had two fractures of the jaw.

Francis D. Smith, the driver, his wife, Ellen Lou, both 40, and another daughter, Jackie Lou, 17 were treated and released.

The train hit the rear of the car where five of the children were riding. Smith told officers he knew he couldn't stop in time and tried to get across the tracks ahead of the train.

Two Teen-agers Die In Crash at Eldon

ELDON, Mo. (AP)—Two teenage youths were killed Wednesday night when their car slid more than 100 feet and crashed into a tree about four miles northwest of Eldon on Missouri Highway 17.

Dead are Robert Capps, 18, of Brumley, Mo., the driver, and William Fitzpatrick, 17, of Eldon.

The Missouri State Patrol said the car was traveling at an estimated speed of 100 miles per hour when the accident occurred.

Freedom Bid By Prisoner Very Brief

Kidnaps Service Station Operator, Robs Two Stores

HERMITAGE, Mo. (AP)—A 30-year-old parole violator from Wisconsin escaped from the Hickory County jail early today but traveled only 30 miles before he was caught.

But during his brief freedom the escapee, Fred Roger Harling, kidnaped a service station operator; was peppered by a shotgun blast and burglarized two stores. He was caught by the Highway Patrol at Bolivar where he is being held and treated for his wounds

Sheriff William Kennedy and a state trooper arrested Harling last Saturday, and he was being held for Wisconsin officers.

Sheriff Kennedy said someone slipped Harling a hacksaw in his ground floor cell and the prisoner sawed through half dozen bars before he broke out about 3 a.m.

Sheriff Kennedy said the escapee then went to the service station where his car was being held and accosted the attendant, Hughey Yoast. While Harling was holding Yoast at gunpoint, a neighbor, Chester Folkz fired at him with a shotgun, much of the charge hitting the escapee in the hip.

Harling then drove away with the attendant. Several miles west of here on U.S. 71, Harling robbed the attendant and left him on the road. Then, at Wheatland, he burglarized two stores.

Harling was arrested at Bolivar.

World News Glimpses

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The assassin of Premier Jigme Dorji of Bhutan and an army officer charged with masterminding the plot have been executed in public, the newspaper The Statesman reported today.

The report said Naik Jambey, the assassin, and Lt. Sange Dorji, faced a firing squad at a parade ground in Thimbu Saturday.

Brig. Bhadur Namgyal, deputy commander of the Bhutan army, was executed two months ago for complicity in the assassination.

Dorji, an anti-Communist, was shot April 5 near the Indian border. The Indian government said it believed Red China was behind the assassination.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israel has warned that the "deteriorating situation" along the Israeli-Syrian frontier is a serious threat to international peace and security.

In a note to U.N. Security Council President Ahmed Taibi Benhima of Morocco Wednesday, Israeli Ambassador Michael S. Comay accused Syrian forces of 29 "utterly unprovoked and obviously premeditated" attacks on Israeli positions between June 9 and July 6. He said his country had suffered six casualties and extensive property damage.

SAARBRUECKEN, Germany (AP) — A match struck to light a cigarette most likely caused one of Germany's worst mine disasters, in February 1962, a court was told Wednesday.

A total of 299 miners died in the Luisenthal coal mine following an underground explosion. Thirteen mine officials are on trial on charges of negligent homicide.

Dr. Walter von Koenigsloew, a mining expert, testified that the evidence uncovered in investigations allowed only one conclusion — that methane and firedamp in the mine probably were ignited by a match struck to light a cigarette.

FRIENDLY GREETING — Arrival of Barry Goldwater in San Francisco was heralded in advance by this billboard on U.S. 101, the main road between the airport and the city. Goldwater flew to San Francisco today insisting "nothing has been decided" about a vice-presidential running mate should he win the Republican presidential nomination.

Walker Seen Near Double Slaying Scene

PLATTE CITY, Mo. (AP) — Andrew Jackson Walker was identified Wednesday by a Smithville, Mo., service station attendant as the man who drove into his station with a flat tire April 29—the day Walker is accused of killing two women.

Leo George, 25, of Timble, Mo. pointed out Walker in the courtroom in the second day of Walker's preliminary hearing before Magistrate Jay B. Wilson. The hearing resumes today.

The 38-year-old Walker is accused in the slaying of Mrs. Marion Biscoe, 67, and her mother, Mrs. Hattie Biscoe, 83, both of Camden Point, Mo.

George testified Walker was driving a 1957 Buick with a flat right front tire on April 29. He said he later viewed a 1957 Buick in Kansas City that was painted a different color but had a repaired right front tire with the same kind of path he used on Walker's tire.

A defense attorney termed George a hostile witness after George answered a series of questions by saying he couldn't recall details of conversations he had with police the night of April 29.

George said it was three to four weeks after the slayings when he identified Walker in a showup at Kansas City police headquarters.

Patrolman Clyde A. Hickman Jr. testified he stopped Walker in a car June 7 and later with Det. John King questioned Walker. Hickman said he asked Walker "why he killed those women north of the river" and Walker's exact reply was "Man you ain't going to lie on me, are you?"

Sgt. Robert G. Place of the state highway patrol, an evidence technician, said he found a scarf, purse and some papers near the body of Mrs. Marion Biscoe. When the Biscoe car was found nearly a half mile away with her mother's body in it, he found blood stains on papers, a whisk broom and two pieces of white cloth. He said the evidence also included a can of black paint believed to have been taken from Walker's car and dirt samples.

United Fund Allotments Are Okayed

Three days of hearings ended today with the Sedalia Pettis County United Fund board announcing individual allotments to 14 agencies. The final figures were unanimously agreed on this morning at a "dutch" breakfast attended by U-F officials.

Budget committee chairman Damon Hieronymus, in releasing the budget breakdown, stated that ". . . we have met with various agency representatives and had them explain and outline their programs for the coming year. Now that we have set the individual agency allocation, it will be up to the people of Sedalia what they do for these agencies."

The agencies and the monies allocated follows: American Red Cross, $18,660; Salvation Army, $12,000; Boy Scouts of America, $11,000; Cerebral Palsy, $10,500; Mercy Hospital, $7,500; Girl Scouts of America, $6,588.30; Melita Day Nursery, $6,450; United Fund, $5,200; Minniolia Nursery, $4,322.18; Child Welfare, $2,000; 4-H Clubs, $1,005; United Service Organizations, $634; Missouri Social Welfare, $300; National Travelers Aid, $50.

Wrestling Match On Senate Floor

Friendly Duel By Yarborough And Thurmond

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., and Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., engaged in a wrestling match on the marble floor of a Senate Office Building corridor today over a question of whether to attend a committee meeting.

The affair began as a friendly scuffle with Yarborough attempting to persuade Thurmond to enter the committee room and make a quorum to consider a nomination the South Carolinian was opposing.

Finally the two men, both 61 and active in the Army reserves, agreed to the wrestling match with the understanding Thurmond would enter the meeting room if he lost and that Yarborough would remain outside if he lost.

Thurmond appeared to be winning when the contest was broken up by Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., the Commerce Committee chairman. But Yarborough insisted no decision had been reached.

At one point Thurmond seized Yarborough's leg and dumped him on the floor but at other times the Texas senator seemed to have the advantage.

Before Magnuson succeeded in stopping the match, Sens. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, and Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., two other committee members, had tried to do so unsuccessfully.

42 Cuban Refugees Flee in Small Boats

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Forty-two refugees have arrived from Cuba this week in five small boats despite increased fortification of Cuban coasts.

Fishermen arriving from Havana Province Wednesday said a stretch of about 100 miles of the north coast is "solid with fortifications of concrete, wire, trenches, cannon, machineguns and tanks."

Viet Nam Protocol

COURTESY CALL IN SAIGON — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, U.S. Ambassador to South Viet Nam, called on Premier Nguyen Khanh, right, in the latter's Saigon office, Wednesday. The former chairman of the U.S. joint chiefs of staff arrived in Saigon Tuesday, to take up his duties.

Extremist Rejection Urged by Scranton

Raps Party 'Misgivings' On Platform Thinking

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton urged today that the Republican platform specifically reject extremist groups that are alien to our shores." He named the John Birch Society as one such group.

Scranton in testimony prepared for presentation to the Platform Committee, said the GOP has two alternatives in considering "the matter of extremist groups and their relationship to the Republican party."

One point of view is, he said, that such groups have some public support and include the kind of people needed in politics. But Scranton added:

"The other point of view with which I agree says that the radical, extremist groups are alien to our shores. I can fine in them no saving grace.

"Our platform should say so. Frankly, I cannot for one second conceive why you would hesitate to specifically name the John Birch Society as a prime example of this weird presence in America."

Scranton said that the GOP cannot "separate the Republican platform from the Republican presidential candidate."

He said the GOP should dismiss the theory "that the candidate is more important than the platform, and the theory that whomever the candidate, he can be made different by the platform."

Scranton also urged that the GOP write a plank that "confirms our traditional position favoring compulsory Social Security."

Other points stressed by the governor:

—The party should pledge support for an increased role for the states in dealing with housing, mass transportation and urban renewal.

—Medical assistance to the aged through federal legislation should also be endorsed, but not through financing by the Social Security.

—The GOP should urge "an antipoverty and full-employment program which would be aimed on a pin-point basis at specific causes" of evils existing in the community.

On the question of civil rights, Scranton urged that the new law signed by President Johnson "should be cited as another step toward America's promise to the world, implicit in our Constitution, of equal rights and opportunities for all."

The governor did not specifically recommend that the Platform Committee back the civil rights law as constitutional.

"And we should not stop with the 1964 act—good as it is. We should pledge ourselves to act to remove the many frustrations that remain to deprive minorities in the fields of education, employment and housing," he added.

In appearing before the committee, Scranton brought his underdog campaign for the presidential nomination direct to delegates, many of whom don't favor him.

His outnumbered followers on the committee have been trying to build a launching bad for the kind of superthrust take-off Scranton would have to achieve to catch up with Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Roberto Arias Takes Turn For the Worse

LONDON (AP)—Panamanian politician - diplomat Roberto Arias, husband of ballerina Margot Fonteyn, has taken a serious turn for the worse because of a chest infection.

Arias, 47, was shot by a disgruntled political colleague in Panama June 8. He suffered a lung wound and a spinal injury which caused paralysis and was flown to England last Saturday for treatment at a hospital 30 miles from London.

After seeing her husband safely into the hospital, Dame Margot flew to Italy to appear in the annual Festival of Two Worlds at Spoleto.

The dancer canceled her Spoleto appearance and left for London today after being informed of her husband's condition.

Free Choice To Delegates From Ohio

Can Cast 1st Vote At GOP Meet For Man They Choose

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes, Ohio favorite son, cleared the way today for the 58 Ohio delegates to the Republican National Convention to cast their first vote for the presidential nominee of their choice.

Rhodes declined, however, to comment when asked who his own preference would be for the nomination.

Shortly before his scheduled departure for San Francisco, Rhodes issued a statement expressing his views.

"During the caucus next Monday morning, those delegates who may wish to support their choice will be welcomed to express their beliefs and persuade their colleagues," he said.

"I am confident that every delegate will exercise individually that fine judgement which is characteristic of this splendid group of public officials and private citizens."

Rhodes expressed appreciation for the recent caucus stand of delegates to cast their first convention vote for him as favorite son.

"I take it as an evidence of their confidence and as an endorsement of my administration as governor of Ohio," he said.

Without elaborating, Rhodes' statement indicated to associates that he was willing to forego the honor of a complimentary vote for the presidential nomination.

Followers of Sen. Barry Goldwater have said all along that more than half the votes in Ohio's delegation would go for him on the second ballot. They have expressed the hope of release from the recent caucus decision to cast a complimentary first vote for Rhodes, but nevertheless agreed to stand by that decision at the convention.

Others in the Ohio delegation showed a leaning toward Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, Goldwater's only apparent rival for the nomination.

NEW COMMANDER —Col. Walter T. Eisenbrown (above) will assume command of Whiteman Air Force base, July 23. He will replace Col. John T. Allen who is being reassigned to the Pentagon. Col. Eisenbrown was base commander at Columbus AFB, Miss. before coming to Whiteman for duty in April 1963. The new commander is a veteran of 22 years service and is a native of New York City. The colonel, his wife, Anne Joy, and four sons—Donald, Paul, Walter and James—reside on base.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Dr. William J. Sullivan, director of the Providence Veterans Administration Hospital, died Wednesday in Calais, Maine.

Sullivan, 62, was returning from a vacation trip to Canada.

He was a native of Sedalia, Mo., and a graduate of St. Louis University.

Washington Capsules

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed a bill to establish Campobello Island, once the summer home of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, as an international park.

The legislation provides for the creation of a U.S.-Canadian commission to accept the home and 10.5-acre tract on the island lying just north of the border. The two countries will share costs of the project.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Library of Congress has received a gift of 700 rare books from Lessing J. Rosenwald, American bibliophile and art collector.

L. Quincy Mumford, Librarian of Congress who announced the gift Wednesday, said the books include the first Bible in German printed in Augsburg about 1475 and a Latin Bible printed in Venice in 1476.

The volumes will be added to the Rosenwald collection of more than 1,500 rare books already in the library.

Rosenwald, 73, who retired 25 years ago as board chairman of Sears, Roebuck & Co. and now lives in Jenkintown, Pa., established the collection in the library in 1943.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Treasury announced Wednesday a sharp cutback in the amount of money it plans to borrow in the next three months. An improvement of more than $2 billion in the government's cash position is the reason.

Undersecretary of the Treasury Robert V. Roosa said the improvement was due mainly to a reduction in expenditures.

In April, Roosa announced plans for borrowing about $4 billion in mid-July. But he said Wednesday, this will be reduced to $1 billion or $2 billion through September and that the only immediate borrowing will be in the form of increases of $100 million a week in weekly Treasury bills.

New Light On Garbage Pickup Fee

Families occupying apartment buildings hooked to a single water meter would be charged per individual family if they deposit garbage for city collection under the terms of a proposed ordinance initiating a $1 per month garbage pickup fee, according to Mayor L. L. Studer.

"The ordinance will stipulate and it will be worked out for apartment buildings if each family has garbage then each will have to pay," Studer said. "The $1 means $1 for each family sanitation employees would have to collect garbage from."

Studer said he wanted to point this out as he had received a large number of telephone calls following a Democrat editorial published Wednesday.

The original memorandum read to the City Council Monday night by Mayor Studer said the $1 per month fee would be added to city water bills. The Democrat editorial pointed out the multi-family dwelling houses hooked to a single water meter as one hurdle that will have to be worked out.

Studer also noted that the garbage service will not be mandatory and therefore the council cannot attach a $1 per month fee to the water bills of customers not utilizing the collection service.

"If you don't want to take it, you don't have to, but you must dispose of the garbage yourself," Studer said.

The mayor said one woman telephoned to protest the collection charge stating that she had only a minimum amount of

Police Court

James I. Cranfield, 1002 East Fourth, charged with failure to purchase a city auto sticker, forfeited a $10 bond.

Russell Fisher, Sedalia, charged with failure to purchase a city auto sticker, forfeited a $10 bond.

Wayne L. Watring, 1600 Honeysuckle, charged with failure to purchase a city auto sticker, forfeited a $10 bond.

Accidents

The driver of a northbound 1960 Rambler received minor injuries as the result of an accident eight miles north of Sedalia on Highway 65 at 2:40 p. m. Wednesday. Miss Janice Kay Greene, 18, Wichita, Kan., received a sprained left wrist. Miss Greene was taken to Bothwell Hospital and referred to the office of Dr. A J. Campbell.

According to the accident report of Trooper W. T. Southwick a car turned left in front of Miss Hunter and as she braked her automobile, she lost control of it and went off the highway, overturning.

A Fisher wrecker from Sedalia romoved the car from the scene.

garbage. Studer said, however, that she did deposit old newspapers, cans and etc. for collection.

Under the proposed fee system the city's definition of the word garbage will apparently remain as loose as in current practice. The Sanitation Department now collects cans, bottles, newspapers, boxes and etc. which are deposited in cans along with the garbage.

Restaurants and other businesses requiring daily pickups would continue at the regular charge of 10 cents per can of garbage, Studer indicated.

Circuit Court

Mary Lee Briggs filed a petition in Circuit Court Wednesday asking a divorce from Andrew Patrick Briggs. William F. Brown is her attorney.

Betty Jean Welliver, Route 1, was awarded a judgment of $8,000 less one-third the amount for attorney fees in Circuit Court Thursday as the result of an automobile accident in which she was injured on South Highway 65 on Nov. 14, 1962.

Defendant in the damage action was Eva Frances Templeton, Des Moines, Ia.

Miss Welliver, a minor, was represented in the action by her next friend and father, Robert Welliver. The court judgment allowed $2,666 for attorney fees.

The Welliver vs. Templeton case had been set for jury trial Thursday, but Wednesday attorneys in the matter notified Circuit Court that a settlement had been reached and court clerk Bryan Howe notified prospective jurors that they need not appear.

Condemnation proceedings by the Great Lakes Pipe Line Company against four defendants were dismissed in Circuit Court Thursday morning by the plaintiff with prejudice and at cost of the defendants.

The Circuit Court had appointed three commissioners to appraise the land which the firm's pipeline will cross, but the dismissals indicate a settlement has been negotiated.

Actions were dismissed against Leonidas E. Durley, Pettis County, and L. H. Durley, 621 West Sixth, on one petition and against Elizabeth Cordry, 116 West Seventh, and V. C. Abney, Pettis County, on the other petition.

Police Reports

A 24-year-old Illinois man who surrendered himself to police June 30 as a parole violator was released shortly before noon today after police were unable to determine if there were any outstanding warrants for his arrest.

Police said Harry P. Gilkerson, Shabbona, Ill., was taken out of town in a patrol car.

Gilkerson had telephoned police 10 days ago from a phone booth and said he was tired of running. He told officers he was on parole for issuing no account checks in the state of California, but his parole had been transferred to Illinois. Gilkerson had been held in jail since that time.

Records checks by local police failed to turn up anything against the man, Chief William Miller said.

Norman Grass, 731 East Fifth, reported to police Wednesday afternoon that some artificial flowers were taken from a grave in Memorial Park Cemetery. The theft occurred sometime between Sunday and Tuesday. The flowers were valued at $12.

Police located a 1963 four-door white Chevrolet that had been reported stolen in Sedalia sometime between 3 p. m. Tuesday and 1:30 a. m. Wednesday at approximately 12:40 p. m. Wednesday. Officers reportedly found the car abandoned in the 700 block of State Fair Blvd. and ticketed it for traffic obstruction and had it towed to Park's Service Station.

Boyd A. Harwood, 617 West 15th, told police he parked the car at Hinken's 66 Service Station, 2400 West Broadway, and when he returned from work early Wednesday the auto was gone.

A representative of the Routszong Motor Co., 225 South Kentucky, reported to police Wednesday that vandals had destroyed six radio antennas on cars while parked at their lot at 11th and Limit. The incident reportedly occurred sometime Tuesday evening.

Police turned a juvenile over to Juvenile Officer Cecil Glenn Wednesday after an alleged shoplifting incident Wednesday at the Western Auto Store, 105 West Main. Police answered a call at 2:23 p. m. and took the youth to the police station where he was detained until Glenn arrived.

Power Off for Paper

Electric power was off in The Sedalia Democrat building for about 45 minutes Thursday. Sparks and burning wires on poles alongside and at the rear of the building attracted attention for several minutes.

Clinton Black, electrical engineer for the Missouri Public Service Co., said the failure stemmed from a loose connection on an aluminum spun cable. The loose connection caused the line to heat up, melt the insulation and cause the short in the line.

Educational Effort Need, Lions Topic

The Sedalia Lions Club was told Wednesday that an expanded and improved educational effort is needed if this nation's youth are to attain the background they need to fit into the world of work.

Their speaker was Roland G. Ross, Kansas City Field Director for the U. S. Labor Department's Office of Manpower, Automation and Training. He spoke at the Lions Club weekly luncheon meeting at Bothwell Hotel.

"We are now witnessing a head-on collision between advancing automation and technology on the one hand, and a tidal wave of manpower for whom job opportunities must be available on the other hand," Ross said.

He told his audience that no group is immune to the impact of this collision, but that young people and the older sector of the labor force are particularly hard hit by it.

"Those 45 years of age and over now comprise 30 per cent of all the unemployed," Ross said, explaining that obsolescence of skill, under the impact of changing technology, is particularly hard on those older persons who have a disproportionately higher incidence of long-term joblessness.

As for young workers, Ross said that in past years, a young person with limited skill or education could find an abundant supply of unskilled jobs on and off the farm. Today, he said, the young worker's access to a beginning job has narrowed considerably and the impact of automation and technological change appear to be further limiting his opportunities.

We are faced with two propositions, according to Ross: 1) we must advance our technology for the sake of our own domestic economy and for the sake of our international posture, and 2) we must first accomplish this with the minimum amount of hurt to the people involved.

This involves at a minimum, he said, making a more perfect match between the jobs we have and expect to get, and the people able and willing to fill them. He concluded by saying, "This is why our new technology points up the need to expand the quantity and quality of our educational effort in this country — offering particular programs, which will help youth attain the background they need for the new world at work, and of enhancing the training and retraining efforts for those past school age upon which we have recently embarked."

Kennedy Encouraged In Governor's Race

Judge Michael J. Kennedy, Kansas City, Democratic Candidate for governor, visited Pettis County officials Wednesday and spent some time on Ohio avenue shaking hands with voters.

Earlier in the day he toured Boonville and appeared on a radio program there.

He contends that he will win the Democratic party's nomination and become Missouri's next governor in the November election, because of his qualifications for the job.

Kennedy had just completed a ten day visit to St. Louis where he said he received good reception and that encouragement from all over the state along with support would "assure him the party nomination."

Five Democrats are seeking the nomination. Others are: Lt. Gov. Hilary Bush, Secretary of State Warren E. Hearnes, Milton Morris and Bill Beeny.

Three Die In Crash

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Three Alton Ill., residents were killed Wednesday evening in a traffic accident near the Missouri River in North St. Louis County.

Dead are the driver of one car, Mrs. Theresa Higgins, 42, her mother, Mrs. Martha Roberts, and Mrs. Higgins' son, Gregory, 8.

No other injuries were reported.

Park Board President Re-Elected

George Ray was re-elected president of the Sedalia Park board Wednesday night at the July meeting of the panel. John Vandekamp was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

A letter was read from Captain Marjorie Weber, Salvation Army, to L. R. Black, superintendent of the parks, expressing appreciation for the use of Convention Hall for their Bible School and for the meetings of the Golden Agers while the Salvation Army building is undergoing extensive remodeling.

Bids for paint were opened at a previous meeting and Keele Paint Co. had the lowest and best bid.

Black stated that the grandstand and some of the rest rooms at the parks had already been painted.

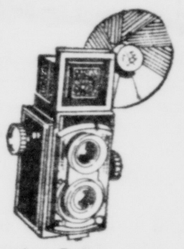

Dr. A. R. Maddox asked for more lights at Hubbard Park which Black said would be provided along with lights at other locations. Swimming totals were down during the month of June for about two weeks due to the weather but immense crowds have used the pool the past few days, with the number for one day being more than 1,500, Black said.

The park tractor, which was about 15 years old, Black said, broke down and he purchased a used one for $642 to be used the remainder of the year, and to be traded in the early part of next year for a better one.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I am caught in the cross-fire between two lovely but temperamental bosses. I am very fond of them both but when they have an argument — which is about three times a week—I wind up in the middle.

Just this morning Mr. A. dictated a letter to be sent over for Mr. B.'s signature. They had not spoken to each other for a couple of days and the tension in the office was terrific.

When I presented the letter to Mr. B. for his signature he exploded and pointed out 11 statements he could not "go along with." I had to serve as referee for two high powered dynamos. It took five re-writes and three hours before both members satisfied with the letter.

This job is a two-girl operation and I am the two girls. Any suggestions?—SINGED.

Dear Singed: Yes. Tell the bosses they have two weeks to employ a second girl. They can draw lots to see which one gets you. If they are not agreeable, inform them that they will need TWO girls because you are leaving.

Dear Ann Landers: We have raised three fine daughters, all now happily married. Our youngest, Valerie, is 17 and giving us nothing but heartache.

Valerie has gone with at least a dozen fine, wholesome young men with good family backgrounds. They are the leading athletes and scholars in her school, but she says they are dull and boring. Valerie has now decided to go steady with a good-for-nothing smart aleck who dropped out of school in March and spends most of his time leaning against the post office with his thumbs hooked in his pockets. Last night she said she thought maybe she would marry him.

We can think of 12 good reasons why Valerie shouldn't even go out with him, much less consider marriage. Shall we forbid her to see him while she lives in this house, or let her see him and make a mess out of her life? — DON'T KNOW WHICH WAY TO TURN.

Dear Don't Know: Valerie might make a mess of her life no matter what you do. She is obviously filled with rebellion and determined to do whatever displeases you most. If you forbid her to see the boy she would probably meet him on the sly and wind up running off because you "forced her into it."

My advice is to stop knocking the boy. The less you attack, the less she will be compelled to defend him. And try to show extra friendliness — to both Valerie and the smart-aleck, if it kills you. You may see a change in her attitude. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

Dear Ann Landers: I was touched by the letter from the kids who had forgotten their mother's birthday. Mom was silent for awhile then she opened up and let the whole family know how hurt she was.

Will you please educate folks to the idea that there are other gifts besides the ones which can be bought in a store? To my way of thinking, the greatest gift of all is the gift of service. For example: The children could write down on a piece of paper their pledge to do the dinner dishes for one week. Each child could have his assignment so the duties would be delegated. Dad might even agree to bring Mom her breakfast in bed one Sunday.

The gift of service, well thought out, and agreed to in advance, can bring the greatest pleasure of all, and it is endless. I hope you will pass this along. —Mrs. BCB.

Dear Mrs. BCB: Many thanks for your message—(by Western Union yet). I am passing it along, for millions to see, and adding my own endorsement.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Dozen Kids Protest Candy Store Hustle

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After a show of force, a dozen kids have converted a candy store owner to their way of thinking.

Their way of thinking is that when you are at a candy counter trying to make up your mind you don't like to be rushed.

They considered that Mrs. Antoinette Mufarreh was rushing them in her Noe Hill market at 4001 Noe St. So they marched on the market and protested.

Mrs. Mufarreh agreed they should not be rushed at such a critical time. She went further. Would they like to come to her house for some free candy?

They would. And afterward:

"She's a very nice lady," said Kevikfregosi, 4, savoring a mint.

Car-Truck Crash Kills Edwards Infant; 2 Hurt

A four-month-old Edwards infant was killed Wednesday near Stroud, Okla., in a car-truck accident.

The baby was identified as James Stillion, Jr., son of the auto driver, Carolyn Sue Brown, 20, Edwards. Miss Brown had received a divorce from James J. Stillion in Pettis County Circuit Court Tuesday.

Miss Brown was reported in serious condition at Stroud General Hospital with multiple injuries and severe shock. Another passenger, Susan Hicks, 19, Sedalia, was hospitalized and reported in serious condition.

Truck driver John Buck, 61, Muskogee, Okla., was not injured. The patrol said the car "for no apparent reason" crossed the center line on US Highway 66 and hit the rear wheels of the semi-trailer truck.

United Fund Members Will Study Requests

Requests from participating agencies in the Sedalia Pettis County United Fund are being worked on by a special fund committee. Budget allocations are expected to be announced this morning after a dutch treat breakfast of committee members and other fund officials.

Agency representatives who have requested more monies this year have presented their needs to the committee in special hearings held Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

The total goal and breakdown of agency allocations will be discussed at the morning breakfast and it is expected to be announced about mid-day.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Earle Watring, Norfolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Deo Marcum and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Thomas, Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Marcum and family, Mrs. Gertrude Head, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Asbury and family, Sedalia; Mr. and Mrs. George Marcum and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Marcum and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Marcum and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. John Watring, Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Henderson and granddaughter, Loretta, Mrs. W. P. Marcum, Eugene Walje, Otterville.

Power Increase Is Granted For KDRO

Radio station KDRO was notified Wednesday by the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D. C., that a construction permit has been granted the station to increase its daytime power to 1000 Watts. The power at present is 250 watts. Although the power will be increased, the frequency will still remain 1490 kilocycles.

The power boost will give considerable increase to the station's coverage. KDRO first went on the air, Sept. 15, 1939. Only a little over a year ago, they moved to new studios on West Highway 50.

Mrs. Vernon Gage

Miss Peggy Karen Hutchison Weds Mr. Vernon Gage on 20th of June

In a candlelight setting, Miss Peggy Karen Hutchison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Hutchison, Fortuna, became the bride of Mr. Vernon Gage, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Gage, Tipton, at eight o'clock Saturday evening, June 20, at Fortuna Methodist Church.

The Rev. Joe Lightner performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Zora Charles, organist, played wedding music as guests assembled. Mrs. Danny Johnson sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer," respectively, before and during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza. A Sabrina neckline, highlighted with lace and tiny sequins, completed the fitted bodice. The bouffant lace tiered skirt flowed into a cathedral train. Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was hand rolled in scallops, each adorned with a single pearl. It was secured by a pearl crown with aurora borealis crystals. She carried a bouquet of white carnations accented with pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Shirley Brondel and Miss Sally Hutchison, sisters of the bride, served as matron of honor and bridesmaid. They wore light blue street length dresses and carried pink carnation bouquets.

The bridegroom chose Mr. Edward Olson, his brother-in-law, as best man and Mr. Keith Gates, cousin of the bride, as groomsman. Mr. Sammy Bayne and Mr. Randy Charles, cousins of the bride, assisted in ushering.

Miss Robyn Brondel, niece of the bride, wore a pink dress and scattered rose petals.

The bride's niece and nephew, Miss JoAnn Brondel and Mr. Tommy Brondel, were candlelighters. Miss Brondel wore a dress of pink.

Master Charles Brondel, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Both mothers chose blue dresses with white accessories.

Mrs. Edward Olson, sister of the bridegroom, attended the guest book.

A reception was held in the church annex. Mrs. Archie Garrison prepared and served the wedding cake. She was assisted by Miss Naomi Woods. Mrs. Ned Charles and Mrs. Glenn Drake, aunts of the bride, served the punch. Miss Connie Drake, cousin of the bride, received gifts for the couple.

For traveling, the bride chose a blue and white cord suit accented by a corsage of blue tinted carnations.

The couple is at home in Tipton.

Merit in Neighborliness..

Depending from what direction you look at it, the Kaysinger Dam location is at the front door or back door of Warsaw, or in other words about a mile upstream on the Osage river.

Warsaw is 35 miles south of Sedalia. More than two dozen other communities, large and small, have personal interests in the building and development of the multiple purpose project for which 1½ million dollars is allocated to start construction. The ultimate cost may go beyond $146 million.

Because of its proximity to Kaysinger, Warsaw is the hub around which many events will occur before, during and after the dam's construction. An immediate one is the prospect of President Lyndon Johnson's appearance in Central Missouri in connection with ground-breaking at Kaysinger Bluff.

Such a ceremony will require a tremendous amount of detailed preparation to accommodate swarms of people from all over the state who will come to this area. The prospect seems all but overwhelming.

Recognizing the responsibility entailed President Avis Burton, of the Warsaw Chamber of Commerce, broadcast an invitation to area communities to participate in the planning.

The enthusiasm with which this gesture was received is attested by the 250 community leaders who attended the first meeting in Warsaw Monday evening. Sedalia was represented by P. Cecil Owen, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Kennie Miller, Charles Maggard and his son Dale. They have pledged Sedalia's support to Warsaw in undertaking the role of host to President Johnson.

This initial meeting of communities in a matter relating to Kaysinger is a demonstration of neighborliness that must be encouraged. Cultivation and expansion of cooperation through friendly contacts will likely redound to the benefit of everyone more effectively than for all communities to engage in a game of snatch for pretties.

Naturally there will arise some competitive factors as work on Kaysinger progresses but the contests do not have to smother the spirit of neighborliness. The latter should prevail in connection with Kaysinger the same as it has among communities surrounding Whiteman Air Force Base, communities which consistently maintain friendly relationships.

Warsaw's courteous and neighborly gesture in seeking cooperation of other localities is widely appreciated.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Heber U. Hunt, superintendent of the Sedalia Public Schools and E. G. Kennedy, principal of Smith-Cotton High school, both received degrees at the University of Missouri. Mr. Hunt received his Doctor of Philosophy degree, and Mr. Kennedy that of Doctor of Education.

FORTY YEARS AGO

At the regular meeting of Sedalia Chapter No. 29, Order of DeMolay at the Masonic Temple, the following officers were elected: Edwin Sutherland, master councillor; David Hanley, senior councillor; Dill Dow, junior councillor; Louis Oswald, treasurer; Robert M. Evans, scribe.

Miss Ernestine Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thomson, of Orchard Wood Farm, left for Chicago to resume her study of music at Northwestern University. She graduated this spring from Central Missouri State Teachers' College, Warrensburg.

Breaking the Chain

If we and our children expect to get from one place to another in the future we must do either of two things:

Multiply our road system indefinitely in a hapless effort to provide space for expanding millions of private cars.

Or work out an effective system of mass transportation for our communities.

It comes as a hopeful sign to millions of beleaguered commuters that the U.S. House of Representatives has approved a $375 million mass transit bill designed to break the stranglehold of traffic and to help cities expand or modernize their transit systems.

Those long lines of bumpers stretching into the distance shrouded in exhaust fumes have become a fixture in our urban society. To sever this metallic chain will require determination and work. It is time to begin.

Scrantonites Want Secret Ballot

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Scranton strategists have a move up their sleeve which they believe could swing a lot of delegates away from Goldwater. It is to require all delegates to vote in secret in deciding which candidate their state will support.

Behind this proposal is word leaking to Scranton forces from various state delegations that Goldwater managers are playing rough and tough; that they are cracking down economically on any delegate who appears to be leaning toward Scranton. They accuse Goldwater of sandbagging delegates with the most ruthless pressures used in any presidential convention in recent years.

But if delegates could ballot secretly, it's believed they would not worry about political punishment and a lot would leave Goldwater for Scranton.

False Civil Rights Rumors

Under Secretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., called on President Johnson the other day to give him a disturbing report on the impact of the civil rights law in the north.

In northern cities, FDR, Jr., reported, there was a drift away from the Democratic party because of a rumor that the civil rights law would require all employers to hire 25 per cent Negroes. Word has spread that employers would be required by the law to fire part of their working force in order to employ 25 per cent Negroes.

Since labor in northern cities has generally voted Democratic, it was feared this would mean a shift toward Goldwater.

Real fact is, however, that there's no such provision in the civil rights law. On the contrary, section J of the Equal Opportunity provision states: "Nothing contained in this title shall be interpreted to require any employer, employment agency, or labor organization to grant preferential treatment to any individual or to any group because of the race, color, religion, sex, or national origin of such individual or group on account of an imbalance which may exist with respect to the total number or percentage of persons .. . in comparison with the total number of persons of such race, etc. in any state."

This means that an employer who now uses all white workers in a community having a large percentage of Negroes would not have to fire a percentage of whites in order to hire Negroes. But he would have to avoid discrimination in hiring new workers.

The civil rights law actually makes it unlawful for an employer to advertise in newspapers or elsewhere indicating any preference for a Negro or for any race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

The White House is considering an educational program to rectify some of these false rumors.

Voluntary Civil Rights

Most people don't realize it, but long before the civil rights law was passed, Presidents Kennedy and Johnson had both been working with southern leaders to prepare for the impact of the law.

During the past year, letters were sent by the White House to leaders in 566 cities; and about 70 per cent of these cities have now put across some form of desegregation, including lunch counter desegregation in 344 cities; restaurants in 298 cities; theaters in 284 cities; hotels and motels in 259 cities.

A total of 21 meetings was held by administration leaders with over 1,500 in the south, and these meetings were followed up with letters to inquire about local progress in race relations.

All this paved the way for the work of ex-Governor Leroy Collins of Florida, head of the new Community Relations Service and Arthur Dean, Wall Street lawyer, now chairman of the national advisory committee on civil rights.

The Justice Department civil rights division believes that passage of the bill will encourage integration in areas where the owners were afraid to integrate for fear of economic reprisals from white customers. The law will now give them an excuse to comply with it.

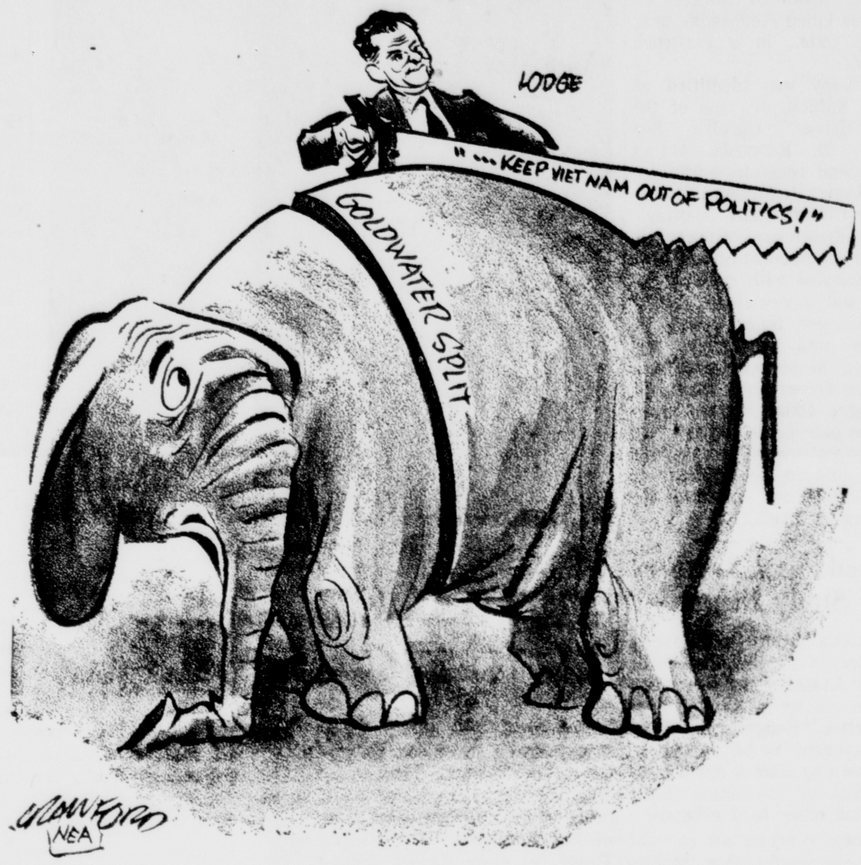

Prayer in Schools

Biggest flop Congress has seen in years was that "prayer" amendment to the Constitution, proposed by Rep. Frank Becker, R-N.Y., to overturn the Supreme Court ban on any denominational prayer in public schools.

House judiciary chairman Manny Celler of Brooklyn has now put the bill in mothballs, after leading church spokesmen of all faiths opposed it as a threat to religious freedom. Rep. Becker wouldn't have got more than ten or twelve votes out of the 35 judiciary committee members if he demanded a roll call. So he didn't.

Even former Republican supporters, such as Rep. Richard Poff of Virginia, have backed away from Becker's bill. In addition, eight or ten House members have taken their names off the petition to discharge it from the judiciary committee. They got cold feet when letters to Congress from the general public turned substantially against the Becker measure.

What's Another Slice Among Friends?

The World Today

Barry Mum As Scranton Drums Thump

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Sen. Barry Goldwater act like men who have it made. Yet, a year ago, Johnson couldn't have dreamed of it. And Goldwater probably wouldn't have bet on it.

Johnson, with the Democratic presidential nomination locked up, is playing mum in this month of July while the Republicans are making up their minds on someone to match him.

Goldwater, looking surer of the Republican presidential nomination than anyone in sight has been letting the anti-Goldwater forces do the talking as they barge around looking for support that seems slow in coming.

It wasn't like this for Johnson or Goldwater a year ago.

Then President Kennedy, in full health and with no opposition in sight, had no problem about being renominated this year. The best Johnson could have hoped for was getting re-elected vice president for another four years.

Maybe then, at the end of two terms for Kennedy, he might put in his bid for the presidency.

This time a year ago, Goldwater fans were working around the country for him. And he himself had drummed up a lot of Republican support with his fund-raising speeches for the party. But he was still saying he wasn't a candidate.

It wasn't clear who might be. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon had damaged himself by losing his race for the governorship of California in 1962.

And New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, while suspected of presidential ambitions, had no inside track. Yet, Goldwater and Rockefeller were the only real prospects in sight.

Goldwater in the spring of 1963 had commented on talk that he and Rockefeller were the two main Republican hopes: "If we're so hard up that we have only Rockefeller and Goldwater, we're in a hell of a shape."

This was while he was still saying all he wanted was re-election to the Senate. His chances must have begun to look better to him as the summer wore on.

In September 1963, it was learned he had reserved the entire 15th floor in a hotel in San Francisco for this July when the Republican convention was being held there.

Yet, a little more than a week later, he was telling newsmen who asked if he was going to try for the presidency: "I've said a thousand times I'm going to run for the Senate, nothing more."

On Jan. 3, 1964, he announced his candidacy. And meanwhile, the assassination of Kennedy last November thrust Johnson into the presidency with no one to challenge his nomination at the Democratic convention next month.

The president is far and away the more experienced politician. He came to Congress in 1937.

Goldwater served several years on the city council in Phoenix, Ariz., but he didn't hit big-time politics until he came to the Senate in 1953.

What They Say In

Letters to the Editor

M. L. COX (221 East Cooper) — Since it is obvious that the citizens of Sedalia, are going to be charged a fee for having the City pick up their garbage, there are some of us citizens who are wondering if the mayor, city council and City employees have taken under consideration the fact that a number of Sedalia citizens are on either state, county, or city relief or welfare and have no other source of income.

We, the citizens of Sedalia, are in favor of every working person receiving a substantial wage for their labor. But, when the working people have their salary increased at the expense of those who receive a meager pension, or are on welfare or relief, which in many cases their allotment is far less than a $100 check each month, then that increase in salary is unjustified because it works a further hardship on those who cannot afford the necessary things of life.

As a rule, when working people receive an increase in wages, the price of foods and other commodities soar higher and higher. Those who receive a pension or are on the welfare have to pay the same price for foods and other commodities as those who receive a substantial wage for their labor.

Before imposing further hardship on some of the citizens of Sedalia, would it be asking too much of the mayor, City council members and City employees to first find out who are receiving a meager pension, or are on the welfare or relief, and then make some allowance for those who are so less fortunate?

When we, the citizens of Sedalia, vote for those who run for official offices, we do so with the thought in mind that if the party we vote for gets in the office they are running for, we will have someone that will understand certain situations, and will do all within their power to remedy them.

We have often been deceived. Will this be another one of those times?

Democrat Pick-ups

ONE DAY a young mother was washing and had her clothes piled on the floor close to her washing machine. She had been busy getting everything ready and suddenly missed her two-year-old son. She looked everywhere for him and was frantic when she couldn't find him anywhere.

She just couldn't imagine where he had disappeared to. And when she had looked every place else, she could think of, she finally thought of the pile of dirty clothes. Sure enough—there he was, fast asleep under the dirty clothes. — H. L.

A FAMILY that does a good deal of cooking out has been aware of the youngsters in the neighborhood watching them and so one night they decided to have a wiener roast just for the kids. There are eleven of them in the neighborhood, all eager to be guests.

As the food was about ready to serve one little girl edged up to the host and said softly: "My Mother said to eat only one unless you asked me to."

So the man kept asking her to and she ate four. — H. L.

The Mature Parent

A 'Crack in the Face'?

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence: I wish I could talk to the mother of that lazy 15-year-old girl who won't clean her room. Instead of advising thet mother to clean it herself, I'd tell her to do what I do when my girl is messy around the house. I give her a good crack in the face and believe me, I get the messes cleaned up. You and your psychology stuff give me a pain in the stomach.

Answer: My sugggestion certainly wouldn't work for you. So isn't it nice that you don't have to take it? You are free to continue getting what you want from your daughter by giving her cracks in the face. Such a wonderfully simple solution. Bang, bang, I want this mess cleaned up. Bang, bang, I got what I wanted.

The only trouble with your solution is that the rest of us have to pay for it.

I've recently had something to do with some youngsters who use your simple method for getting what they want from other people. All of them have experienced repeated cracks in the face from their parents. As they are bright kids, quick to learn, they now beat the rest of us up with garrison belts if they are denied the money or sex they want.

And there's nothing their parents can do about it because they are now bigger and stronger than their parents. So their community will have to take them over. It will have to pay reformatory staffs to try to teach them that work is a more reliable method for getting what you want from other people than beating them into giving it to you.

Know what's the matter with you beating parents?

Your wants from life have been reduced to the barest minimum. Like the kids with garrison belts, you have given up on human connection. You long ago stopped caring enough about human affection and trust to labor for them. If you can beat a child into giving you a cleaned-up mess in her bedroom, you're satisfied. And believe me, I can see no difference whatever between the tragic poverty of your wants from life and those of the kids whose wants have been reduced to forced sex and the dollars they can force from the rest of us by beating us up with their garrison belts.

I'm not against spanking children. I've spanked my own. I am furiously against hurting people as our only method for getting what we want from them. Because if your simple-minded method continues to gain headway, none of us will be able to leave home without police escort. There'll be just too much danger from the kids whose beating parents have taught them to beat up my neighbors and me until we are forced to give them what they want.

Toy Tools for Tiny Garden

by Polly Cramer,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — When working in my 8x8-foot garden, I use my son's metal - tipped play rake. This enables me to rake and cultivate all the corners without kneeling or disturbing the flowers. I use his aluminum sled to hold weeds or picked vegetables as it glides easily over the grass to the back porch where vegetables will be sorted and cleaned. — MRS. L. C. S.

DEAR POLLY—Did you ever go out to burn trash and could not find a dry place to strike a match? Try cutting a piece of sandpaper about an inch and a half by two inces and fasten with cellulose tape to the outside of the wastebasket and there you have it.—MRS. G.E. C.

GIRLS—I am sure most of us have found ourselves in this situation at one time or another, but I would not leave sandpaper on the basket if there are children in the house.—

DEAR POLLY — One of the most rewarding innovations that I have made was to install an extra faucet on a tee below the faucet I use to water the garden. Now when I want to wash my hands or a vegetable or get a small amount of water I can do it without removing the hose or chasing down a sprinkler. This is a simple job that any husband can do. — PAUL

DEAR POLLY — Just the other day I found a use for the leftover scraps of belt backing I had been saving. The strap on one of my favorite handbags had begun to wear thin just at the spot that hangs over the arm. I machine-stitched a length of the belt backing to the underside of the strap and trimmed it even with the strap along the sides. For a more painstaking job, one might measure the strap and purchase enough of this belting to reinforce the entire strap. It is the neatest trick to get more mileage out of an old favorite bag.—WINNIE

DEAR POLLY—Odd buttons can be placed between strips of cellulose tape and the strips easily stored away. The buttons can be seen through the tape and cut off if needed. I also use an empty aspirin box to hold the razor blade in my sewing basket.

• We have found that plastic medicine or pill containers make wonderful holders for a coin collection. Many different sizes are available that will hold nickels, dimes, pennies and quarters. — DORIS

DEAR POLLY—It took four babies for me to hit on this idea that I want to pass on to new mothers who are confronted with the frustration of baby's shirt tabs getting wet from being pinned to the diaper. I cut several small pieces of plastic from old plastic tablecloths, drapes, etc., and when changing baby, I place the plastic between the shirt tab and diaper and then pin. The shirt tab stays dry all day or night. MRS. R. V.

We the Women

When in Rome--Walk

By RUTH MILLET
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A news item from Rome states that due to new parking rules some 70,000 more Roman wives will get to use the family car all day, since their husbands can no longer leave a car parked on the street during working hours.

The ladies are delighted and are enrolling for driving lessons and lining up to get drivers' licenses. BUT THEY'LL BE SORRY.

They'll find out in short order just what it means to have the family car all day. It means they'll soon turn into chauffeurs: driving their husbands to work in the morning, and picking them up at night, running the family errands — instead of depending on their husbands to do all such chores.

And it won't take their children — used to walking or riding bikes to schools — long to catch on to the idea that it's ever so much easier to be driven to school.

And consider how the women's clubs will flourish when all those women have a way of getting around to meetings. In no time at all the women of Rome, used to a leisurely pace, will be running themselves ragged just like American women have been doing ever since they first took over the family car, or decided a second car was a family necessity.

The automobile freed the American woman from the home, all right. But since she got behind the wheel she has never been able to figure out a way to free herself from the time-consuming job of chauffeuring, hauling and errand running.

The woman who takes over the family auto soon lives by the clock. Her days, instead of being divided into morning, afternoon and evening, are cut up into little pieces measured in journeyings. They'll be sorry, those women of Rome who are lining up so happily to get their drivers' licenses. They just don't know what they're letting themselves in for, do they?

Seeks Planks Opposed To 'Extremism'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, after criss - crossing the nation in an effort to spark popular support for his presidential nomination campaign, arrived here Wednesday to try his luck with the delegates.

Scranton, seeking to overtake Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater in the race for the nomination, was invited to appear before the convention platform committee today. He indicated to a newsman he would appeal for planks opposed to "extremism" of any type, particularly in the civil rights area.

The governor arrived with a statement saying he does not want the GOP to become "another name for some ultrarightist society."

He said Republicans must show "that we are responsible, rational Americans, not radical extremists."

At a public reception Scranton personally shook hands with supporters. Following the public reception, he met at a private party some convention delegates and a score of Scranton backers working to line up delegate support for the governor.

Scranton told a newsman "we're going to the delegations starting Friday."

Scranton was greeted by a noisy crowd, many of them young persons, at the airport Wednesday.

Scranton told them he wants the GOP to have "a chance in November, as well as a choice in July."

Scranton contended the Republican party must show:

"That we do believe in equal rights for all Americans.

"That we do believe in Social Security; that we are not in favor of scuttling the United Nations; that we do not advocate an irresponsible use of nuclear weapons.

"That we are the conservative party in the tradition of Lincoln and (Sen. Robert A.) Taft."

26 Missouri Girls Vie for State Title

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — Twenty - six local winners are entered in the "Miss Missouri of 1964" contest which opened Wednesday night with rehearsals.

Talent and evening gown competition will be tonight and Friday night. The final selection will be made Saturday night after a swim suit contest. The winner will go to the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City. She also will receive a $2,000 scholarship and a wardrobe.

Three days of tours, luncheons and public appearances are also on the schedule starting today. Miss Judith Engelhardt of Webster Groves, the reigning Miss Missouri, is on hand for the event.

Ellen Woolery, 18, 503 North Heard, is Sedalia's entrant.

Tests Reveal Conditions Can Magnify Booms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tests over Oklahoma City show that cloud layers, winds, turbulence, varying air temperatures or densities occasionally can greatly magnify sonic booms or deaden them to whispers, the Federal Aviation Agency reports.

This means that it is more difficult than sound engineers formerly believed to forecast accurately the volume of the sonic boom produced by a given airplane flying at a specified speed and altitutde.

FAA engineers say they can still make such predictions accurately for ground areas directly below the sky track of a supersonic airplane.

The sonic boom distortions show up for the most part off to either side of the plane's course. For "off-course" communities a sonic boom can be greater than expected or so slight as almost to escape detection.

In case you haven't heard one, a sonic boom is a sound resembling an explosion. It's produced when a shock wave formed at the nose of an aircraft traveling at supersonic speed reaches the ground.

In conducting the Oklahoma City tests, the FAA was looking ahead to future overland flights of supersonic transport planes.

At a news conference Wednesday, FAA Administrator N. E. Halaby said again that the sonic boom "is a more serious problem than we thought a year ago, in that we are getting what I call overbooming."

Halaby said there was no plan to continue the Oklahoma City boom flights beyond their planned expiration date next month.

Kenyatta Sparks Unity Drive By African Nations

LONDON (AP) — Rulers of Britain's former African colonies moved into a concerted drive today to free all Africans from white rule and unite their continent.

The drive was sparked by Kenya Prime Minister Jomo Kenyatta at the opening business session Wednesday of the week-long conference of Commonwealth leaders.

In calm, measured tones, Kenyatta appealed to the other Commonwealth premiers to form a united front on the question of African liberation and unity.

He called the roll of countries still ruled by whites but his aides said he would specifically attack the write minority governments in Southern Rhodesia and South Africa when the conference takes up the issue of "the progress of British territories towards independence." This will probably come up Friday.

Kenyan sources indicated Kenyatta would call for a Commonwealth boycott of South Africa. That republic has left the Commonwealth but still does much business with its members.

Restauranteur Gets Support For Legal Fight

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A restauranteur who pulled a pistol to chase away three Negroes, says he has since been receiving financial support from over the country to aid his legal fight.

"Only today, a businessman walked in with $100," Lester Maddox said. "It's not primarily merchants who're sending in money, but they're the ones who've got the most to lose by integrating."

Maddox, 48, refused to say how much he has received since last Friday, when three Negroes tried to eat at his restaurant.

"We don't have much money yet but it's increasing daily," he added, "and it shows a wonderful expression of support."

When the Negro theological students attempted to integrate the restaurant, Maddox drew a pistol and provided ax handles for his customers and employes.

The Negroes left, but one of the students swore out a warrant against Maddox on a pistol-pointing charge.

"I'll go to jail before I integrate," Maddox said. "And I'll take any suit all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court to see if Lester Maddox is right or the Constitution is dead."

After hearing conflicting testimony as to whether Maddox pointed a pistol at the three students, a Fulton Civil Court judge said Wednesday there was "a justifiable issue" for a jury to decide.

AWARD—Dale Crawford (right), received the God and Country Award Sunday at the regular morning worship service of the First Methodist Church. The award was conferred by the pastor, Charles B. Cheffy. Dale is a member of Boy Scout Troop 65 sponsored by the Broadway Presbyterian Church. The members of the troop, accompanied by Richard Parkhurst, scoutmaster, attended the services and took part in the conferring of the award. Bruce Trager led the congregation in the pledge of allegiance and Mike McCarty led the scouts in reciting the scout oath and the scout law, after which the scoutmaster escorted Dale to the chancel. Earl Crawford, chairman of the troop committee presented Dale with a pocket testament on behalf of the troop.

Computer Typing Hikes Reading Skill

NEW YORK (AP) — Without benefit of teachers, 20 children in a public school kindergarten have taught themselves to read at second-grade level. The instruction was by "computerized typewriter."

And they learned faster than did a control group that was given enriched instruction by teachers, it was reported Wednesday.

The results of the five-month state sanctioned experiment at a Freeport, Long Island, school were announced by the superintendent, Dr. John H. Martin.

The youngsters used an electronic machine called the Edison Responsive Environment, which permits the child to type letters, words and sentences that are then reproduced on a screen and spoken by the machine.

The children each spent 30 hours in 30-minute sessions with the machine.

NL Roundup

San Francisco Drops One Then Takes 7-2 Decision

By MIKE RATHE T
Associated Press Sports Writer

At their current pace, the Chicago Cubs will win only 74 games but may wind up with three 20-game winners.

Bob Buhl became the third member of the Cubs' staff to reach the 10-victory plateau at the halfway mark of the season when he shut out San Francisco 2-0 on four hits Wednesday before the Giants took the second game of the doubleheader 7-2.

Bringing his record to 10-4 with his third shutout, Buhl joined teammates Larry Jackson, 11-5, and Dick Ellsworth, 10-8, as possible 20-game winners and gave the Cubs a shot at duplicating a feat that hasn't been accomplished in the National League in 41 years.

Not since the 1923 Cincinnati Reds has a NL team had a trio of 20-game winners. Adolfo Luque won 27, Pete Donohue 21 and Eppa Rixey 20 on that club. The last American League club to do it was Cleveland with Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Herb Score, each winning 20 in 1956.

Significantly, neither the Reds nor the Indians won pennants. Both finished second.

The Cubs, however, currently are tied for seventh place—with good reason. While Buhl, Jackson and Ellsworth have accounted for 31 victories, the remainder of the staff has put together only six.

Ernie Broglio, the heralded trade acquisition from the St. Louis Cardinals who was supposed to step in as the No. 4 man, hasn't won as a Cub. He lost his fourth straight as Willie Mays powered his 24th homer for the Giants in the nightcap, called after seven innings because of darkness at the lightless Wrigley Field.

The triumph—ending the Giants longest losing streak of the season at four games—kept second-place San Francisco 1½ games back of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies, who were rained out of a scheduled game with St. Louis.

In the only other game scheduled in either league, home runs by Manny Mota and Willie Stargell triggered Pittsburgh to a 9-1 victory over Cincinnati.

Buhl, 10-4, got the only run he needed in the opener when Joe Amalfitano doubled in the first off Bob Hendley, moved up on a sacrifice and scored on a single by Ron Santo. Billy Williams, who previously had stroked a single and double, wrapped up the scoring in the seventh with his 20th homer.

The Giants stormed back in the nightcap, tagging Broglio, 3-9, for five runs and six hits in the first two innings. Mays' homer, with two on in the second, gave him a league-leading 58 runs batted in and proved more than enough support for Ron Herbel, 7-4.

Mota started the scoring for the Pirates with a two-run homer off Jim Maloney in the first and Stargell put it out of reach with a three-run shot in the sixth. Bob Veale, 8-6, and Al McBean held the Reds to four hits.

Statistics Tell Story For Chiefs

Hitting and pitching statistics of the Sedalia Ban Johnson Chiefs point up why the Sedalians are sporting a 9-0 record and leading their league.

The Chiefs host Carrollton tonight at 8 p.m. on the Liberty Park diamond.

Friday night they face the Sedalia semi-pro Merchants on the park field at the same time.

Lonnie Schott's bat is rippling at a .480 clip as the Chiefs' leading hitter. He has five RBI's 12 hits, has scored 12 runs and has one home run to his credit.

Other top hitters are Tim Morgan — .462; Ernie Dow—.395; Paul Horner — .370; Jerry Barr — .360; Bob Nagel—.344; and Bill Ferguson — .333.

Tim Morgan leads in the runs scored column with 19. Schott has 12, Ernie Dow, 11; Jerry Barr, 7; and Paul Horner, Bill Ferguson, Bob Nagel and Bob Lange have six each.

Morgan ranks first in the hits column with 18. Dow follows with 15, Schott and Ferguson have 12 each, Nagel has 11, Horner has 10, Jerry Barr has 9 and Bob Lange, 7.

Dow heads the RBI column with 16. Morgan has 9, Ferguson, 8; Lange, 7; Schott, 5; Horner, Nagel and Barr, four each.

Dow has swatted three home runs so far this season. Schott, Morgan, Lange and Ferguson claim one each.

Stolen bases honors go to Morgan with 11. Schott has 5, Ferguson and Jerry Barr have three each, Dow and Nagel have 2 apiece.

Pitching Totals

Jim Schnakenberg and Terry Fletcher are the mainstays of the Chiefs mound staff and both have excellent records.

Schnakenberg has turned in four wins and Fletcher has three credits. Schnakenberg sports a .60 earned run average while Fletcher's is lower at .58.

Together they have fanned 72 batters — Schnakenberg has 39 and Fletcher 33.

Lonnie Schott and Phil Matthews have one mound victory each for the Chiefs.

Semi-Pro Player Nears Perfect Game

ANDERSON, Mo. (AP)—Jim Wyatt, once a minor leaguer owned by the Kansas City A's, came as close to a perfect game as it's possible to come Wednesday night in a semi-pro game.

Wyatt retired the first 26 batters to face him, then struck out the 27th batter but the ball got through catcher Butch Todd and the man reached first. The right hander retired the next man to preserve his no-hitter.

His Anderson team beat Grove, Okla., 3-0. Wyatt, now basketball coach at McAuley Regional high school, struck out 11 batters.

Third Loss To Redbirds By Merchants

The Jefferson City Redbirds used a two-run eighth inning and brilliant pitching to down the Sedalia Merchants for the third time this season, 3-1. The loss lowered Sedalia's season's won-lost record to 11-8, after they had led for six innings.

Merchant righthandre Larry Bowes held the Redbirds to one run on four hits for the first seven innings, but he tired in the eighth and gave way to reliever Bob Brown, who pitched the final two frames. The lone Sedalia run was scored in the first inning on back-to-back doubles by Bill Day and Don Crank. Crank and Marshall Bryan accounted for four of the six Merchant hits in the game, with two apiece.

The Redbirds also collected six hits, and their three runs were driven in by the right side of the infield, with second baseman Duncan collecting two RBI's and first baseman Taylor driving in one run.

Sieck started on the mound for Jeff City and went the full nine innings, allowing one base on balls and striking out nine to gain the victory. The loss was credited to Bowes, who fanned eight. Each team committed two errors.

The Merchants will continue the current home stand Sunday night against Columbia at 8 p.m.

Women Golfers Tee Off Today Seeking Title

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Fifty-four of the nation's leading gal golfers, led by defending champion Mary Mills, top challenger Mickey Wright and a young upset threat, Sandra Haynie, teed off today in the first round of the $10,000 United States Women's Open Golf Championship.

Play is at the San Diego Country Club. It has women's par of 36-37—73 and measures 6,470 yards.

Miss Mills, from Gulf Hills, Miss., won the U. S. Open last year at Cincinnati's Kenwood course in her second year as a professional.

Miss Wright, 29, now plays out of Dallas, but all of her younger years were spent in the San Diego area, and the San Diego Country Club was one of her most - often - played training grounds.

Mickey has won the U. S. Open three times—she did not compete last year—and is obviously favored to capture this 12th annual event staged by the USGA.

Sandra plays out of Phoenix, Ariz., but is a native of Ft. Worth, Tex. Last year the tiny Texan tied for second place.

A's, Cards Going Back To Work

By The Associated Press

The Kansas City A's and St. Louis Cardinals go back to work tonight after the All-Star game break with both clubs worse off then at the same stage last season. The Cards were rained out in Philadelphia Wednesday night.

The A's are ninth with a 31-47 won-lost record. Last year they stood 36-46, good for eight place at the All-Star break. Their pace picked up a little to 37-43 the rest of the way but they still wound up eighth. They would have to play .500 ball the rest of the way to equal their 1963 record.

St. Louis is tied for fifth with a 39-40 record, 10 games out of first, compared to a fourth-place 43-38 a year ago at the All-Star break.

In 1963 the Redbirds made a late run at the pennant with a 19 - game victory streak and played 50-31 ball after the All-Star game. They would need a sizzling 54-29 pace the rest of the season to equal their '63 mark.

Kansas City opens a home stand by sending rookie Jose Santiago, a 0-0 righthander with a 3.43 earned run average against Minnesota's brawny sluggers with lefty Jim Kaat the pitcher.

The Cardinals will send Curt Simmons, 9-6, a veteran lefthander, against the tallend Mets in New York, site of the All-Star game in which Ken Boyer and Dick Groat contributed key hits. New York will start Jack Fisher, 5-7 a righthander.

Minnesota out - homered the A's 15-5 in its first visit to Municipal Stadium, but split the four-game set. The Twins have 123 homers but are no better than fourth, seven games out.

Harmon Killebrew, with 30 homers and 64 RBI, is hot, but so is Bob Allison, former Kansas U. halfback who leads the American League at .336. Rookie Tony Oliva is second with .335.

Comets Take Crockets

Alana Green proved the star of the game for the Comets as they whipped the Crickets, 14-2, in the petite league of the girls' Khoury softball league Wednesday. Miss Green had two homers and a triple in three times at bat.

The two homers were made in the first inning with two on and in the second inning with one on.

Losing pitcher for the Crickets was Stacey Morris, with nine strike-outs to her credit. Miss Green took the win for the Comets, fanning 12 Cricket batters.

Race Driver Better

KANSAS CITY (AP) — A 27-year-old race driver hurt Saturday in the overturn of his car in practice for the Lake Garnett Grand prix has improved and is off the critical list.

St. Luke's Hospital Wednesday listed as serious the condition of Graham Shaw of Columbia, S.C. He suffered multiple rib fractures, three fractured vertebrae and internal injuries.

Venturi Eyes Round Robin Opportunity

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — The inevitable letdown that comes with winning the National Open golf championship almost has run its course for Ken Venturi, who says, "I feel I'm getting in the pitch again."

"The Round Robin here should be just what I need to get back on the beam," the articulate ironmaster from San Francisco added today. "It's a good tournament and there won't be too much pressure.

"I should be ready for the PGA next week."

The PGA championship opens next Thursday at the Columbus (Ohio) Country Club and Venturi will enter the event as one of the favorites along with defending champion Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer.

Nicklaus is playing this week in the British Open at hallowed St. Andrews and Palmer is tuning up for the only major pro title he hasn't won, but Venturi is sharpening his game in the $25,000 Wykagyl Round Robin here.

This is a mathematical nightmare in which 16 leading pros play each other in a 90-hole, four-day marathon in which the winner is decided on the basis of holes won and lost. Every man plays every other in the field. The winner is the one who winds up with the biggest plus score—most holes won.

Venturi, as Open champion, is the favorite but he will have stern competition from such players as Bill Casper, Gene Littler, Tommy Bolt, Bob Rosburg and Dave Marr.

After winning the Open with two brilliant closing rounds, Venturi got caught on the merry-go-round that awaits all major champions.

Merchants Will Host BJ Team At Park Friday

The Merchants will play host to the Ban Johnson team for the third time this season at 8 p.m. Friday.

The first outing was the opening game of the season for the Ban Johnson team, which the Merchants easily won, 15-3. The second encounter showed what practice and a few games can do, as the Merchants suffered a 2-1 loss.

The third meet should be a heated contest. Starting for the BJ team will be Jim Schaberg, who led the Ban Johnson league in wins and losses with 45 strikeouts to lead the league with an ERA of 0.67. Jim Fall or Nicky Nichols will hurl for the Merchants.

The Ban Johnson team is showing real improvement with every game and is unbeaten in league play.

The Merchants themselves are starting to show improvement and are preparing for state tournament play, July 21.

Faulkner In Early Lead In Open Golf

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Max Faulkner, the last Briton to win the British Open Golf Championship, fashioned his second straight 73 in North Sea gales that rocked the Old Course today, and took the early lead after two rounds.

Faulkner, one of the last of the beknickered players, won this title in 1951.

Most of the Americans in the field were among the late starters in the field of 120.

The winds, which were the only thing to break 70 on opening day, returned with a vengeance and the par of 72 seemed safe again. Only two men broke it Wednesday, Christy O'Connor of Ireland and Jean Garaialde of France, who had 71s.

In all, only 50 of the 120 golfers in the field broke 80.

Champagne Tony Lema led the eight-man American contingent with 73, and favorite Jack Nicklaus Shot 76.

Deane Beaman, U.S. amateur champion, soared to 82.

Bruce Devlin, the young Australian who was a strong factor in this year's Masters tournament, matched par for the second straight day with 72 for 144.

Nicklaus dropped a shot to par by three-putting the second hole and never recovered it on the front nine. He turned in 37.

The Ohio Golden Bear played a disciplined game, taking no chances with the big wind that was building up again to the 60-mile an hour bursts it produced Wednesday.

Added to a bright sun, the gusts turned the greens as slick as billiard tables.

Doug Sanders, the tour veteran from Ojai, Calif., finished with a 73, after an opening round 78 for 151.

Lema, having seen the Old Course only once and that was the day before, shifted his entire game en route. One of the greatest wedge players in the game, Lema decided the seaside wind was too horrible to contemplate for a flying wedge shot aimed at the pin.

"I took a really big chance," he said. "I put the wedge back in the bag and said goodby. Instead, I took a seven iron and ran the ball to the hole."

Lema, 7-1 shot in the betting, astonished the knowledgeable Scots by the way he conquered really difficult conditions to drop only one shot below par.

No Games For AL Wednesday

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Hank Bauer played in his first of nine world Series, Wally Bunker was 4 years old.

Bunker is 19 now and is the surprising ace of Manager Bauer's pitching staff in the Baltimore Orioles' drive for their first American League pennant.

The Orioles, three games in front of second-place Chicago and third-place New York, battle Cleveland tonight in a doubleheader. Bunker, 8-2, is slated to pitch the second game with Milt Pappas going in the opener.

A $70,000 bonus baby, Bunker got his chance to start earlier this season when injuries riddled Bauer's staff. Neither Bunker nor Bauer ever could have received a better break.

For Bauer, the break could lead to his first Series since 1958 and his first as a manager.

The season, of course, is not even half over for the AL contenders. A three-game lead today could be a three-game deficity next week. But the Orioles must be considered a threat to dethroning the perennial champions, the Yankees.

With Bunker leading the pitching staff and Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell pacing the hitters, the Orioles have been in first place except for five days since June 14. They haven't been lower than second since May 19.

The race seems to have settled down to a three-way battle —Baltimore, Chicago and New York.

The White Sox, though, may be frustrated by the Yankee complex. That's the feeling that says Chicago just can't beat New York. The White Sox may not really feel it, but it is fact.

The Yankees, on the other hand, indicated in the last series with the Orioles that it's not time for their pennant drive. After blowing an 8-2 lead in the eighth one night, they came back the next night and lost 7-4 when two errors gave the Orioles three runs in the eighth.

Put that kind of play together with such positive performances as a pair of one-hitters by a 19-year-old like Bunker, and you have a solid reason why Baltimore is in front.

Kansas State Player Gets Star Berth

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — Willis Crenshaw, ex - Kansas State fullback, has been selected for the College All - Star team, the first K-State player chosen for the game since Corky Taylor in 1954.

The All-Stars will meet the Chicago Bears, National Football League champions, Aug. 7 at Soldier's Field in Chicago. Crenshaw, 225-pounder from St. Louis, was a standout in the recent East-West game in Buffalo. He went most of the way as West halfback, scored once and gained 47 yards.

Crenshaw has signed a pro contract with the St. Louis Cardinals. He was an end as a sophomore, was shifted to fullback in 1963 but continued to play as a linebacker and defensive end.

"Willis has been our best all-around player the past three years," said K - State Coach Doug Weaver. "He's just beginning to develop as a runner and is so quick he's extremely hard to block on defense, too."

Crenshaw was out of action or hobbled most of last fall with injuries but led K-State to its only two victories, with a seven-yard average in the opener and 67 yards in the 21-10 upset of Iowa State in the last game.

Says Missouri Needs Plan To Lure Tourists

CLINTON, Mo. (AP)—Lt. Gov. Hilary A. Bush says Missouri needs a master plan to meet the keen competition for the tourist dollar. Bush is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

In Bush's opinion the plan should include state assistance to individual cities in their own programs. He spoke before a seven-county "Bush for Governor" rally Wednesday night.

Missouri is in the forefront of states benefiting from the "tourist explosion" and the tourist industry is the state's third largest Bush said. But he noted other states offer a challenge with new programs.

"We must determine how these needs can best be met, whether by state or local government, private enterprise or a combination of efforts," the lieutenant governor said.

Missouri's story is being told to the nation but this must be extended abroad, Bush said, through a permanent Missouri trade center in Europe.

Refuse to Overturn Old School Concept

TRENTON, N.J. (AP) — The New Jersey State Board of Education has refused to overturn the neighborhood school concept as a means of ending racial imbalance in Union Township.

It rejected Wednesday a request by a group of Negro parents to compel the Union Township School Board to transfer pupils to reduce imbalance at the 95 per cent Negro Jefferson elementary school.

The Negroes contend a voluntary transfer plan now in effect doesn't work.

Finley Claims A's Worth $10-Million

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Kansas City Athletics owner Charles O. Finley believes his baseball club is worth $10 million dollars, the Milwaukee Sentinel reported Wednesday night.

Lou Chapman, Sentinel sports writer, said Finley quoted that price tag for the club after denying that he had been contacted by a Milwaukee brewing firm head, Robert Uihlein, and associates concerning sale of the club. Uihlein also denied the rumor that originated in Milwaukee that a group sought to buy the A's if the Braves leave Milwaukee.

The Sentinel story quoted Finley as saying "the Athletics are not for sale." But when asked "not for any price," by the sportswriter, Finley was reported to have replied, "I wouldn't consider selling for less than $10 million—not one cent less."

Finley said he is committed to Kansas City and is contemplating no further change.

Agrarian Reform Planned by Exiles

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuban exile farm specialists are working on a program of agrarian reform to be put into effect if Fidel Castro is overthrown.

The purpose is to give Cuban peasants hope for a better future and thus a reason to join the move to oust Castro, according to Dr. Armando Fleites, secretary - general of the Second Front of Escambray.

Main features of the program are redistribution of the land and the use of modern methods for getting maximum production, Fleites said Wednesday.

Polaris A2 Scores 3 Straight Successes

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. — (AP) —The Polaris A2 missile closed out its test firings at Cape Kennedy Wednesday with three straight successes.

The nuclear submarine John Adams launched the missiles on 1,500 - mile flights down range from a submerged position about 30 miles offshore.

The successes gave the A2 a scorecard of 40 good shots in 46 firings.

7 Years Labor For Desertion, Theft of Jeep

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—Capt. Alfred E. Svenson was sentenced today to seven years at hard labor for desertion and theft of a jeep in which he drove to Communist East Germany 14 months ago.

Svenson, 31, of Scranton, Pa., also was dismissed from the U.S. Army. He spent a year in the Communist country before being expelled as "unfit to be granted asylum."

The captain was convicted by a general court-martial Wednesday. Both the conviction and the sentence are subject to automatic review by higher military authorities.

The only U.S. officer ever tried for desertion to the Communists, Svenson got one year less than the maximum eight years possible under the charges on which he was found guilty.

The Lithuanian - born officer drove the jeep across the Iron Curtain on May 4, 1963, while participating in maneuvers near the border between East and West Germany.

Fifth Child Expected By Finkbines

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — Sherri Finkbine, center of international controversy two years ago when she had an abortion after taking the drug thalidomide, says she's expecting her fifth child.

Mrs. Finkbine, 31, known as Sherri Chessen on her Phoenix television show, confirmed Wednesday night the report of her pregnancy. She is expecting in January.

She said she doesn't care whether it's a boy or a girl. "I want a healthy, normal baby," she said. She was reluctant to comment further.

"Two years ago I had a valid reason for telling my story," she declared. "To expose the dangers of a drug. Anything I would say now would be only to satisfy curiosity."

Two years ago, on July 22, Mrs. Finkbine revealed her plight when she gave a Phoenix newspaper, the Arizona Republic, her story. She had taken the tranquilizer early in her pregnancy and was 2½ months along when she learned the drug was causing the birth of severely deformed babies in Europe.

Her husband, Robert, a Scottsdale high school teacher, had obtained the drug in England while escorting a group of students on a tour.

The Finkbines attempted to get a court order declaring an abortion necessary, but Arizona courts turned down their pleas. They then went to Sweden where the abortion was performed and doctors reported the baby would have been deformed.

Speaking of the drug Wednesday night, Mrs. Finkbine said she originally told her story because, "it happened to me, it could have happened to others."

"We're very happy," she said of the impending birth. But that is about all she wanted to say.

Her husband, 33, had a few fatherly words to add.

"We're out to break the tie," he said happily, "we have two boys and two girls. It's kind of exciting, we like kids."

Their children are ages 3 to 9.

Mrs. Noah Wins Powder Puff Derby

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP) —Mrs. Mary A. Noah, Mission, Kan., was named Wednesday as official winner of the 18th annual Powder Puff Derby.

Mrs. Noah and her co - pilot, Mrs. Mary Aikins, Wichita, Kan. scored a plus 20.17 knots, the difference between her handicap and actual speeds.

Second in the race was Mrs. Judy G. Wagner of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., who flew solo, and with 20.13. Third was Mrs. Frances S. Bera, Long Beach, Calif., and co-pilot Dorothy M. Van Zante of Palos Verdes Estates, with a plus 18.28.

Oklahoma Will Have Two Capable Lines

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—New Oklahoma head football coach, Gomer Jones, who turned out nine All America linemen in his 16 seasons as line coach of the Sooners, said Wednesday he'll have two lines capable of playing both offense and defense.

Jones said also that he'll have three backfield units, one of which can play both ways.

Jones took over as head coach from Bud Wilkinson who resigned last February to run for the U. S. Senate.

One of his problems, he said, is to find a quarterback with ability to pass.

The coach made his remarks to a Rotary Club luncheon.

Protection Demanded For 500

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Explosions which injured two civil rights workers in McComb, Miss., have touched off demands for protection of youths involved in civil rights work in Mississippi. About 500 youths from other states are involved.

Forty-one parents of youths from northern California decided to ask President Johnson, Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California and their congressmen to assure protection for the young civil rights workers in Mississippi.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation sent an explosives expert to McComb to help with the investigation. There have been two other similar explosions but no arrests.

An avowed foe of the newly passed civil rights act was shot in the arm in Columbia, Tenn., Wednesday night.

Flo F. Fleming, a candidate for Congress from Tennessee's 6th District, reported two Negroes in a passing car fired two shots at him as he drove home from a speaking engagement. He was not believed seriously injured.

In Chattanooga, Tenn., a Negro educator, Claude C. Bond, was named coordinator of general education for the Chattanooga school system. It is believed to be the first time a Negro has attained such a position in a Southern school system.

In Danville, Va., directors of the city's Memorial Hospital ordered the facility integrated. The first step taken was approval of two Negro doctors for staff privileges.

In San Francisco, Negro leaders said that more than 50,000 are expected to parade Sunday in opposition to the possible nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president.

The search continued in the Philadelphia, Miss., area for three civil rights workers who disappeared June 21.

In St. Augustine, Fla., Negroes were refused service at two of 29 restaurants they visited.

Killed Pedestrian And Abandoned Auto

NEW YORK (AP)—A motorist struck and killed a pedestrian Wednesday night, got out of his car, unscrewed the license plate, tucked it under his arm and walked off, police reported.

The victim was Irving Silverfarb, 63, of Manhattan, who was returning home from a grocery store with his wife, Celia.

Witnesses told police the car driver, a man in his late 20s, ignored the victim and abandoned his car in the middle of the intersection.

Mrs. Goldwater 55

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's wife, Peggy, observed her 55th birthday Wednesday.

The wife of the man favored to win the Republican presidential nomination spent the day quietly at the Goldwaters' hilltop home overlooking Phoenix.

matter of fact

The oldest organized sport in America is lacrosse. It is the name given by the French settlers of Canada to the old Indian game of "baggataway," because the implement used, the curved netted stick, resembled a bishop's crozier. It was played by the six nations of the Iroquois throughout the territory of upper New York state and lower Ontario before Columbus landed in the new world in 1492. The Indians adopted the sport as a training measure for war.

Allied Western Firm Is Termed Insolvent

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A Kansas City insurance company has been enjoined by Circuit Judge Sam C. Blair from doing business and ordered to turn its records over to Ralph H. Duggins, state superintendent of insurance.

Duggins charged Wednesday the firm, Allied Western Mutual Insurance Co., is insolvent by about $130,000 and the figure may grow when his examiners complete their investigation.

Co-defendant in the suit is H. C. Frick Management Corp., which supervises the firm's operations. The president of Allied Western is William N. Smith. The defendants have until Tuesday to answer charges.

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II, protected by her husband's umbrella, sat through a downpour to watch a performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Yeoman of the Guard" at the Tower of London.

The rain began halfway through the first act Wednesday. A tarpaulin was stretched over the orchestra and the show went on.

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower began his address at the New York World's Fair by saying, "An ex...an old politician must resist the temptation to expound on the virtues of the old Republican party."

And he did resist the temptation Wednesday, except to note that there "may be one or two Democrats here." Mayor Robert F. Wagner, a Democrat, was another of the speakers at International Business Machine Day at the fair.

Eisenhower spoke of the computer, but also confessed that he hadn't "the slightest idea how a computer works."

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover, oldest living ex-president, will miss the Republican National Convention for the first time since he left office three decades ago.

Hoover, who will be 90 next month, said through a spokesman that he will send a 600-word statement to the convention that opens in San Francisco Monday.

He has been confined to his suite in the Waldorf Towers where he is recovering from a grave illness.

New Orleans Cotton Market Closes Today

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — The New Orleans Cotton Exchange — a historic futures market where fortunes were once made and lost during a single day of trading—ceases operations today.

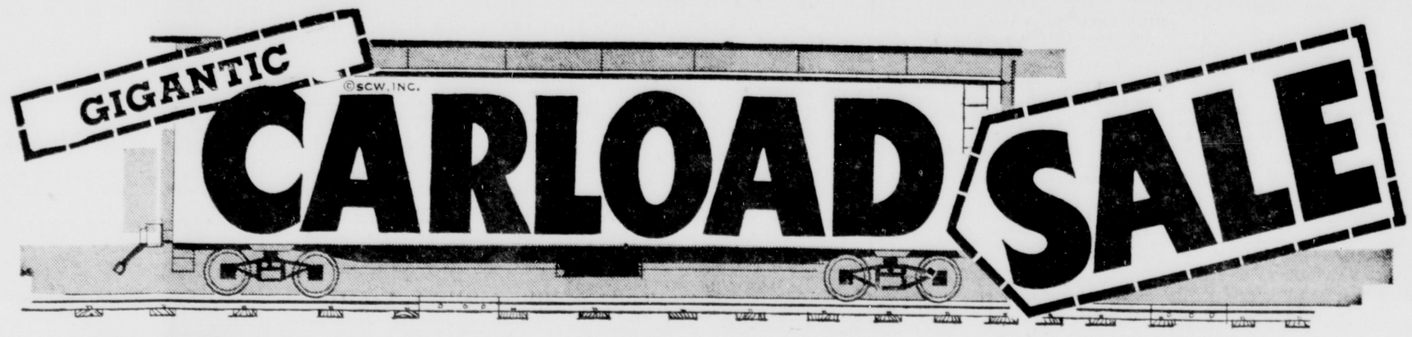

Across the nation, more than a score of commodity exchanges will suspend operations and observe one minute of silence at noon to mark the passing of the 93-year-old New Orleans exchange.

C. Layton Merritt, president of the exchange, blamed the government's price-fixing system and proposed government financing of cotton industry cooperatives as final blows to his historic institution.

"We cede our role in the market place to the secretary of agriculture, the cooperatives and to history," said Merritt.

The end of the exchange will come when exchange secretary Edwin G. Pinac raps his gavel at 12:01 p.m. Eastern Standard Time in the three - room suite which the exchange has recently used on the third floor of the six-story New Orleans Cotton Exchange Building.

Brunette Not Happy With Blonde Role

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Do blondes have more fun, more sex appeal, more boy friends, more oomph?

"No! No! No!" says actress Sandra Warner, a ravishing brunette who recently had to turn blonde for a role.

"My experience as a blonde was a complete disaster. It even ruined my health. I wouldn't go through the experience again for a million dollars. Well, maybe for a million."

Sandra was cast as a movie queen.

"The studio insisted that I turn blonde. I argued: 'Would Liz Taylor qualify as a movie queen?' But it was no use. I had to turn blonde. Producers think all movie queens are blonde.

"It took three days to make me a blonde. Right there, I figured, blondes don't have time enough to have fun. And how many men can you find in a beauty shop? Blondes spend half their lives in beauty shops.

"As a blonde, my whole personality changed. I may have looked flashier but I sure didn't feel it.

"Maybe it's different for natural blondes — if any exist— but the whole bleaching process is turning against nature.

"As a brunette, I consider myself a warmer woman. As a blonde, I was cold, reserved— entirely different from my real personality.

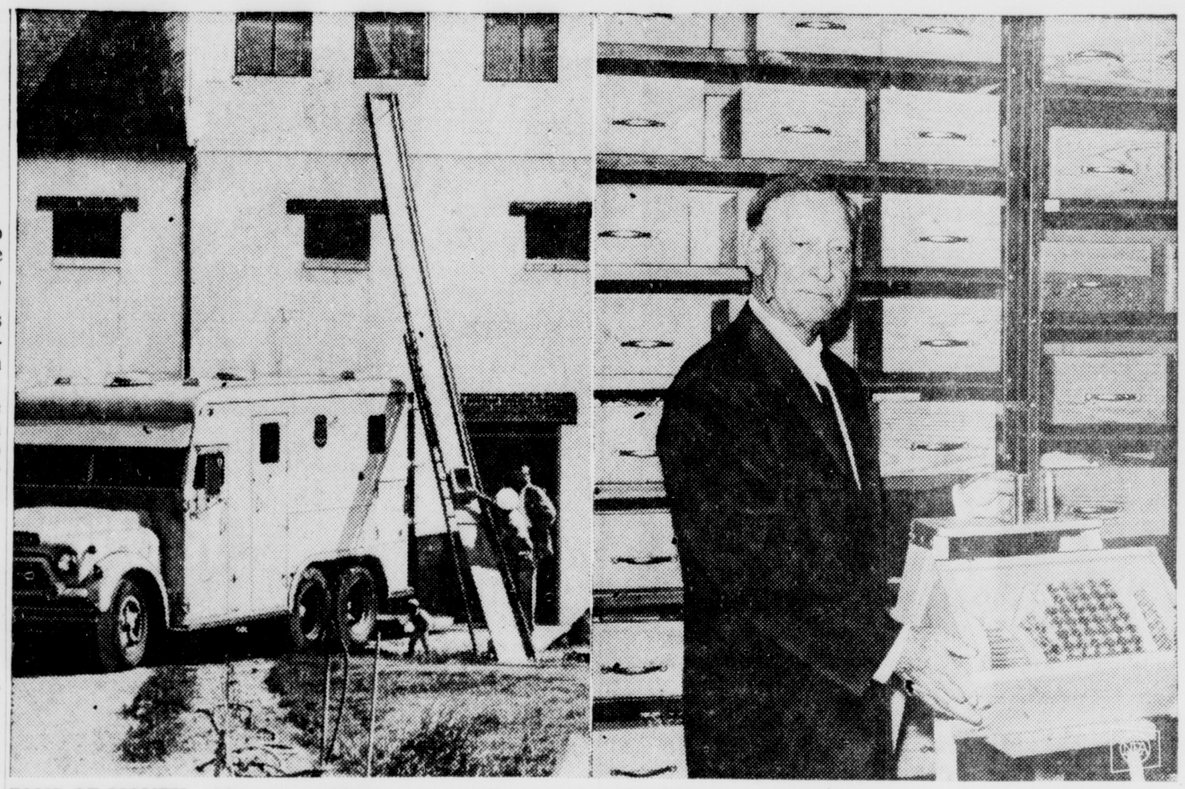

"Brunettes are sexier—even though blondes may look it."

Sandra admits bitterness.

"The bleaching process put me in the hospital with toxic hepatitis—and I lost the role besides. They couldn't wait until I got well. I also lost 15 pounds."

Tina Louise took the part instead.

"She's a red head. What's Hollywood got against brunettes?"

TONS OF MONEY—After two robberies, one netting burglars $12,000, Frederick C. Roth decided to move his $1 million coin collection from a secluded farmhouse near Cleveland. He found a Cleveland bank with a vault big enough to house the collection and hired Brink's to move it. The largest Brink's truck in the area had to make two trips to move the 15 tons of coins. To get them out of the third floor of the farmhouse a chute (left) composed of boards and a ladder was devised and boxes of coins were slid down the chute. Roth, a retired businessman turned coin dealer, displays one of the boxes of coins (right). The ones behind him—and many more—are all filled with coins.

Poultry To Compete With Red Meats

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Poultry is competing strongly with red meats in many markets this weekend.

While beef prices show signs of rising as supplies diminish, turkey is becoming more easily available and prices are down.

Turkey shipments are up 10 per cent from a year ago and this ampleness translated itself into lower market prices and more frequent "specials" at 37 cents a pound or so. Beef prices, meanwhile, have moved up at wholesale at the big packing centers and this is beginning to show up at the nation's retail counters.

One national chain is featuring ribs of beef this weekend at 63 cents a pound, with sirloin at 99 and boneless chuck roasts at 59 cents.

The rise in pork prices has been more apparent and, with production easing, is likely to last longer.

Fresh vegetable attractions, meanwhile, include cabbage, snap beans, beets, carrots, corn, okra, green and dry onions, radishes, summer squash, watercress, peppers, eggplant, tomatoes, cucumbers and lettuce.

Holstein Dairy Show

The District Holstein Show will be held at the State Fairgrounds in Sedalia, Monday, behind the Holstein Barn.

Bob Longan, who is in charge of the District show announced that everyone is invited.

He stated that Ed Reid from Thony Ma Farms, Lyons, Kan., will be present to judge and discuss types of Dairy Cattle.

The cattle will be prepared for show in the morning. Placing of the Classes will start at 1 p.m.

Tommy Klein, Chairman of the Central Missouri Holstein Association will also be present at this show.

Mistaken for Divers

PORT CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Reports of unauthorized divers around two Nuclear polaris submarines set off a portwide search Tuesday.

Two Navy frogmen spotted what they thought was another diver while inspecting underwater electronic attachments on the hulls of the submarines Daniel Boone and John Adams. Civilian divers and an FBI agent joined in the search.

After several hours, they agreed the intruders were not spies seeking secrets but large sea turtles.

Dumb Blondes Out of Date; Smart Blondes Are Stylish

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Dumb blondes are out of date in Hollywood. Smart blondes are in style.

Among the smartest at the moment is Tippi Hedren, who looks like a younger sister of Grace Kelly and who just got a free $50,000 wardrobe from her mentor, Alfred Hitchcock.

That plump Englishman is as good a judge of feminine acting talent as he is of plot. Among the ladies whose careers he has helped are Ingrid Bergman, Grace Kelly, Eva Marie Saint, Shirley MacLaine, and Vera Miles.

Not too long ago he saw Tippi in a television commercial, liked her, gave her a $25,000 screen test and hired her on the spot to star in his last picture, "The Birds."

"She looks ladylike," said Hitchcock, "a quality now quite rare."

Hollywood exists on the Cinderella theme, but for a television model to step into immediate stardom was more than some West Coast old-timers could take.

Hitchcock was satisfied. He has starred Tippi again in "Marnie," a film based on an English novel about a girl who is a compulsive thief.

Taking no chances on Miss Hedren's Minnesota accent, the old master moved the story into an American setting, and concentrated his camera as much on her loveliness as on the plot.

"Hitch gave me the complete wardrobe in the picture as a reward for my performance," said Tippi. "It was designed by Edith Head and must have cost $50,000 originally."

Her nickname is a variation of "Tupsa," a Swedish term for little girl. Hitchcock preferred it to her real name, which is Nathalie.

True to the traditions of her Swedish ancestry, Miss Hedren is enamored with two virtues—the enjoyment of hard work and the pursuit of hard cash.

She is an easy-going, friendly girl who at 29 isn't swept off her feet by success because she has worked as a model since she was 13.

Hitchcock is so confident of her ability that he has signed her for two more films, a rare step for him.

Pretty as she is, Tippi has no pretty illusions.

"This is very much a business with me. The idea of being an actress didn't appeal to me. I knew how rough a road it was, and I was doing very well as a model.

"But I find it exciting. Stardom has made a big difference in my life.

"I've gone into real estate. I'm buying and renting houses, and hope to buy a property to subdivide soon."

Groups Ready Wares for July Street Bazaar

Churches and organizations are getting ready for the annual Street Bazaar which will be held July 27, and some have been working all year on things that they hope to sell. They have been asking at business places for space to put up booths or tables and the following have contacted the Chamber of Commerce telling of where they will be and what they plan to sell.

Wards Memorial Church, baked goods, in front of Reed's Jewelry; Business and Professional Women's Club will sell flags, Sedalia, Mo., license plates, baked goods, and miscellaneous things including jewelry in front of the Taylor-Wagner office on Ohio; Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Ross Mabry will be in front of Mode O'Day where they will sell table grace napkins, box greeting cards and stationery.

Epworth Methodist Church will be in front of Scott's Dollar Store where they will have baked goods; Reorganized Latter Day Saints Church, in front of Missouri Public Service will have handiwork, art platering, moulds and other things; Altrusa Club in front of B & B Shoes will have an assortment of everything.

First Methodist Church Women will be in front of Hoffman Hardware with fried chicken sack lunches; Queen City Chapter No. 47, OES, in front of Parks Insurance Agency will have baked goods and the Pentecostal Church of God, in front of Shoe City will have miscellaneous.

American Business Riding Spectacular Profit Waves

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—American business is riding a profit wave as spectacular as any challenged by the surfboard set.

A flood of earnings reports for the second quarter is starting. Early tallies and estimates reveal only a small minority of companies that aren't doing better htan a year ago. Many are reporting new highs for the quarter. Some are setting records for any three-month period in their history.

The good news is encouraging the bulls in the stock market. Also gladdened are the hearts of shareowners who hope for further increases in dividends.

The U.S. Treasury will be a big winner, too. Even at the lowered tax rates on corporate incomes, the record gross earnings will mean a flow of tax receipts. The b i g g e r-than-expected jump in profits in the first three months of the year is being extended through the latest period.

Earliest reports are from corporations with fiscal years ending ahead of the calendar year, so that their second quarter books were closed before June 30. But the nation's banks are reporting for the April - May-June quarter and most of them show gains over last year. Officials of many of the large corporations yet to report formally also are on record as estimating that the gain over last year will be substantial.

Among the big companies already reporting increased earnings are American Telephone & Telegraph, Firestone Tire & Rubber and Douglas Aircraft. Preliminary estimates also put Du Pont and Parke, Davis & Co. in this group. Most steel companies are expected to join the list by the end of the month. The big motor companies are considered sure members of the club.

Retail chains reporting so far are almost all in the plus column. Included are J. C. Penney, R. H. Macy, Federated Department Stores, Bullock's, Marshall Field, May Department Stores, Associated Dry Goods, Allied Stores, Russeks, and Lane Bryant.

Executives of a number of the nation's largest corporations are on record as predicting that the rate of the profit increases may slow a bit in coming months but that the figures will stay well above those of a year ago.

They, like many stock traders already have put 1964 down in the books as the most profitable, in terms of dollar totals, in American business history.

Rose Society In Meet At Harbit Home

The Sedalia Rose Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Harbit, 1804 West 18th, Thursday evening, July 2, with Mr. and Mrs. Victor Gill assisting.

A contributive picnic dinner was served in the shelter house on the spacious lawn at 7 p.m. to 31 members and one guest, Dr. C. P. Blackmore, Newark, N. J.

Dr. Blackmore, formerly of Windsor, is professor of political science at Rutgers University. He also specializes in hybridizing to develop high quality of plant and bloom in certain garden flowers.

His experiments in this field are at present, concentrated on hemerocallis, or day lilies and include efforts to change the plant growth cells from the usual diploids to tetraploids. He has more than 3000 hemerocallis plants at his mother's place in Windsor in various stages of growth, many of them in bloom, and several thousand more at his experimental grounds in New Jersey.

Dr. Blackmore has also been doing much work with shasta daisies and amaryllis. With the latter he uses both the Dutch hybrids and the American varieties and crosses of the two. He is a member of the American Hemerocallis Society.

In the absence of the president of the Sedalia Rose Society, M. L. Edwards, the vice-president, Mrs. Wilson Harbit, presided over the business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Davis were introduced as new members.

Oscar DeWolf, who was chairman of the Rose Show, held on June 6, gave a report that it was an outstanding show.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Brummit, who attended the 1964 American Rose Society spring convention and National Rose Show which was held in Peoria, Ill., June 10, 11, 12 and 13, gave a report stating that there were excellent roses in the show. Nationally know rose growers and hybridizers were in charge of the different programs.

Dr. T. G. Pridham gave a lecture on "Control of Diseases", Dr. E. J. Jordan lectured on "Hybridiser of Roses" and Richard Thompson on "Old Roses." At the Rose Culture Center, the Brummets said, were experts at each table to answer all questions. A garden tour was taken the last day of the convention visiting many outstanding rose gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Brummet showed slides they had taken while there and also scenes they had taken on a trip to Florida.

In exhibits of patriotic arrangements of red, white and blue, on display at the July meeting, of which Mrs. J. M. Richardson was in charge, were arrangements by Mrs. Lewis Smith, Mrs. F. W. Koenig, Mrs. Leland Hoback, Mrs. P. L. Strole and Oscar DeWolf.

A memorial tribute to A. A. Ferguson, who was a charter member of the Sedalia Rose Society, was given by Oscar DeWolf, and members stood in silent prayer.

The next meeting will be a picnic on Aug. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hoback in Windsor, with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Richardson assisting.

matter of fact

The apple is the most widely cultivated and best-known tree fruit of temperate climates; the world crop, including cider apples, exceeds 700,000,000 bushels in some years. Varieties of apples were recognized in Europe more than 2,000 years ago. Cato (3rd century, B.C.) recognized seven different varieties.

World News Glimpses

PARIS (AP)—George Paques, 50, a former French press officer for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, has been convicted of spying for the Soviet Union and sentenced to life in prison.

In rejecting the prosecution's demand for the death penalty, the French state security court apparently accepted defense arguments that Paques was motivated by misguided patriotism.

Paques, was arrested last August. He admitted passing documents to Soviet agents but said he hoped to prevent Soviet misunderstanding of the Western Allies' true intentions.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist air force said today it would continue reconnaissance flights over Communist China despite the loss of another U2 plane, the third claimed by the Communists.

Peking Radio said the high-altitude U2 was shot down at noon Tuesday. There was unofficial speculation in Taipei that the plane had been downed by a ground-to-air missile, but the Nationalist air force would say only that it "met with an accident."

LONDON (AP)—The channel ferry Arromanches gave 677 French schoolchildren an unexpected thrill today. It ran aground off the south coast of Britain.

The rising tide refloated the 2,404-ton ship and the children were landed at Newhaven Pier. There were no casualties.

MOSCOW (AP)—The head of the Soviet Union's Aeroflot airline says Russian designers are working on a supersonic airliner and hope to have it flying before the United States gets one aloft.

Yevgeny Loginov told a news conference Tuesday he could not predict the speed of the Soviet plane, but it would be faster than the 1,450-mile-an-hour Concorde airliner on which Britain and France are collaborating.

Hostesses were Mrs. Eppenauer, Mrs. Marguerite Nelson, Mrs. Eva Goodman and Mrs. Georgia Clark. A decorated, two tiered birthday cake was baked by Mrs. Eppenauer, and served with punch.

Americanism Contest Set By Auxiliary

In an effort to encourage youth of America and to stimulate their ideals into the truest meaning of patriotism and good citizenship, the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars announced today a new annual Americanism Award competition open to high school and college students. A total of $2,000 in cash and three gold medals will go to three top national winners. Citations will be given to 10 other participants.

Any student between the ages of 16 and 19 years who attends a private, parochial, public high school or college may enter the award contest.

Each entrant must fill out an application to be obtained from the local Auxiliary and submit in writing not more than 300 words on the subject, "In Education Rests the Future of America."

The recipient of an award will be selected on the basis of his or her keen sense of purpose and worthiness as an individual. Applicants must show genuine interest in family, community, national and world affairs, display a sense of responsibility, truthfulness and loyalty and ability to present new ideas with sincerity.

All applications are to be returned completed to the local Auxiliary by March 15, 1965. The local winner will be entered in district competition, the district winner in state competition. The application winning first place in each state will be entered in the national contest. National awards are :First, $1,250 cash and gold medal; second, $500 cash and gold medal; third, $250 cash and gold medal, and 10 citations for honorable mention. State and local award winners receive additional Auxiliary prizes which vary with the community.

National award winners will be announced at the 1965 national convention of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Chicago, Ill.

Rules folders on the 1964-65 Americanism Award contest may be obtained from local Auxiliary units, or by writing to the Americanism Award Department, V.F.W. Auxiliary, 406 West 34th Street, Kansas City, Mo. 64111.

Auxiliary members annually give more than three million dollars and more than six million hours to volunteer service for hospitalized veterans, community service, Americanism programs, assistance to youth groups, civil defense and legislation benefiting veterans and their families.

Meats to Barbecue

BROILER - FRYERS

Are popular for outdoor barbecuing and will be in good supply and low in price for this summer. . . To make a compact serving, break the joints by breaking (do not cut). Break joints between drumstick and thigh, where thigh joins body, and where wing is attached to the breast. Season with salt, melted butter and lemon juice—turn every 5 to 10 minutes during grilling and baste with lemon juice and butter or a barbecue sauce. Begin with a light basting sauce and use a heavy sauce near the end of cooking time. Cooking time is about one hour, depending on the size of the broiler and the amount of heat. Test for doneness by pulling the wing away from the body. Allow ½ chicken per person.

TURKEYS

Are tender, tasty, and easy to barbecue. Two turkeys can be cooked at one time on an 18-inch spit. Rub body cavity slightly with salt. Mount turkeys on spit, insert hooks firmly in place and screw tightly. Birds must balance on spit. Brush with soft fat or oil. Cook approximately 2½ to 3 hours at rather high heat for 4 to 6 pound bird. Barbecue sauce may be used during cooking.

PORK — Is excellent but requires special care when cooking. The fear of not getting pork well done and safe to eat has kept many from using pork on the outside grill. If care is used and the cook is skilful, pork may be as safe from your grill as when cooked in your range. Keep the fire low and allow plenty of time for the meat to turn from pink to white. Test in the thickest part for color before eating. . . Pork which has been kept in a freezer at zero degrees Fahrenheit for a month is considered safe from the trichinae parasite. The internal temperature is not so critical when you are using pork of this type. Cured and fully cooked cuts are easy to prepare.

BEEF STEAKS — Are the choice of many. Slash fat edges to prevent curling. Place steaks on hot grill. It is well to brush the grill with unseasoned fat to prevent sticking.

Cook one side until meat is ready to turn. Turn only once. Timing, of course, depends on heat, but usually a one-inch steak medium rare requires about 10 minutes on each side.

SPARERIBS — Allow one pound per serving. Lay ribs on grill and cook slowly and thoroughly. Before and during grilling, brush ribs with thick barbecue sauce. Usually require 1½ to 2 hours to cook. Test for doneness — bones can be moved easily from meat and no sign of pink is in the meat.

Cooking Tips

Meats for barbecuing should be at room temperature a short while before grilling (not more than one hour before cooking time). The exception is ground meat which should not stand out in summer heat.

For broiling, use tender cuts of meat (T-bone, sirloin, porterhouse, club steaks, and ground beef.)

The less tender cuts of meat (round, rump, chuck, and those other cuts that require long moist cooking) should be treated to a tenderizing period before barbecuing. This is done by marinating the meat for 12 - 48 hours depending on the size and thickness of the pieces, in a food acid preparation in the refrigerator. Food acid would include lemon juice, vinegar or tomato juice. These foods in combinations with seasonings break down the meat fibers, as well as importing a distinctive flavor to meat. All marinating of meats, fish and vegetables should be done under refrigeration. This is especially important as the temperature climbs. Trimming excess fat from meat will prevent excess smoke.

Shish Kabob

Shish means skewer. Kabob means grill. A shish kabob is a meal on a stick. Select meat and vegetables that cook in the same time. Do not over-crowd.

Skewer Combinations— Round steak with small green onion bulbs. Weave strips of meat around onion bulbs on skewer, working close to the point of the skewer, grill.

Green pepper strips, whole small white boiling onions, bacon, round steak strips: roll up thin round steak loosely so meat cooks in center; bacon supplies some fat. Grill slowly. Onion quarters, marinated lamb, green pepper, tomato. Add additional oil or butter to marinade for sauce. Apple and ham: butter or oil provides necessary fat; last minute brushing with honey glazes meat, fruit. Mushrooms, bacon, chicken livers: weave bacon around chicken livers; grill slowly.

Heat-Process Pickles

The latest word in home preservation of pickles and relishes is "heat-process." That's what the U. S. Department of Agriculture recommends to maintain the texture, color, and flavor of pickled fruits and vegetables.

Food specialists of USDA's Agricultural Research Service advise processing these products in a boiling - water bath (rather than cold-pack or open-kettle canning). This will inactivate enzymes which might cause off - flavors and destroy spoilage - causing micro - organisms such as yeasts and molds.

Micro - organisms in pickled foods are not considered potentially dangerous — as long as acid content is high to begin with and remains high during storage. But if spoilage micro-organisms survive processing, they may begin to grow within the jar of food and reduce the acid content. In the resulting low-acid surroundings, botulinum spores, if present, could start to grow and produce a deadly toxin.

To be safe, use processing times worked out by the researchers. These are included with pickle and relish recipes in a new USDA publication, "Making Pickles and Relishes at Home," (HG-92). Single copies are available free from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20250. Just send a postcard with your name and address. Ask for HG-92.

Washington Capsules

WASHINGTON (AP)—A force of Soviet submarines and supporting ships reportedly cruised through the Mediterranean recently, under close scrutiny of a U.S. hunter-killer task force.

The U.S. ships, including one carrier and six destroyers, followed the Soviet subs, took pictures of them and tried to get them to respond to radio signals, it was learned Tuesday night.

Some of the Soviet force entered the Mediterranean through Gibralter and others from the Black Sea. All are now understood to have returned whence they came.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has received a report that nearly 20 million workers are now covered by federal efforts to achieve equality in all areas of employment.

He told members of the Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity, which he headed when he was vice president, that their report shows "we mean business" in government efforts to wipe out bias in employment.

The President added that despite the large strides made so far much remains to be done.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air National Guard hopes to send about 30 jets, piloted by "weekend warriors," across the Atlantic next month to demonstrate its ability to reinforce the regular Air Force in Europe within hours.

If the Air Force approves, the guard for the first time will fly aboard non-stop, using its own tanker planes for aerial refueling.

In Europe the guard planes would fly operational missions for about four days for the U.S. 7th Army.

PLENTY OF eat IN THE meat WITH "Super-Right" PORK LOINS!

The EAT in the MEAT that you get in a "Super-Right" pork loin begins way back with the selections of A&P expert buyers and continues under constant quality control until you buy. Only tender, young, corn-fed porkers will do. Heavy hogs are too wasteful. Then, there's the "Super-Right" method of cutting pork loins that insures full value. No center meat is ever removed from half loins. Center cuts are just that — only choice center meat. And you never get just "ends" if you buy less than a half loin. You get a full 7-rib portion or a loin portion with the tenderloin included. Both have plenty of EAT in the MEAT. This same care goes into our beef, lamb, veal and poultry, as well as pork. That's why every cut is guranteed to please you — or your money back! Give A&P a try this week.

Revolutionary Sparks Flicker Out

EDITOR'S NOTE — The old revolutionary spark seems to be disappearing in Russia; the newer generation is less fanatic. Preston Grover, Associated Press chief of bureau in Moscow for five years, tells why in the following third of four articles.

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet revolution gives much evidence of running down.

That is a development perhaps as pleasing to some Soviet people as to the people in the West.

This doesn't mean that the Soviet Union has stopped growing. It is growing quite fast. But it does mean that especially among the young, the zeal of the Founding Fathers for the pure faith is no longer what it was.

Premier Khrushchev himself gave dramatic evidence of that when he told a group of Hungarian factory workers that people expected, and should get, more than just enthusiastic party talk. They also wanted more goulash. "Goulash communism" as a catch phrase now is heard here, very privately.

Americans should not be astonished that much of the fanatic zeal is gone. They have seen the same thing in pioneer settlements in the West where religion was the dominant factor. The circumstances and the motives are different, but the experiences have a certain parallel.

A few of the people who had struggled through the hard years before and after the revolution of 1917 still are in government, but many of those now in authority never saw Lenin. He died in 1924.

When Khrushchev set out to destroy the image of Stalin, it was a "purge" to clean up the party history. But it shook the faith of many.

The days of the old "barricades fighters" have given way to another generation waiting to take over.

The glow has gone even from some of the heroes of those days when Communist doctrine called for weakening family ties so the influence of the party and government would be felt more. That, too, has changed. The family no longer is a thing to be despised, but to be encouraged and respected.

The state and party still make themselves felt as the basis of life in the Soviet Union. In children's pioneer organizations, in the Young Communist League, the young of the land still are indoctrinated with Communist precepts.

But there is increasing cynicism about the constant new drives of communism. In 1961, Khrushchev outlined at the party congress the project for bringing full-fledged communism to the country in 20 years.

The party editorialists pulsed with enthusiasm, but the project brought audible moans from many Russians.

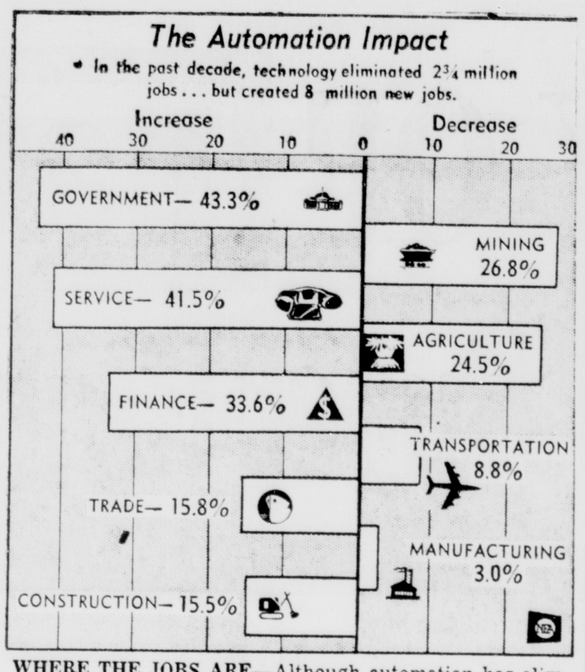

"I'll be an old man then, still poor, like my father," said a Russian salaried man, with a wife and one child.

With two generations already sacrificed to the building of communism, the present population is not delighted at the prospect of seeing a third generation go through the poverty mill. Increasingly they are able to make their voices heard, in a way never to have been thought of under Stalin.

The sons and grandsons of the same farmers are simply not producing, and the government and party now are offering more and more inducement for individuals to work harder. Farmers are still the downtrodden part of the population.

All this doesn't justify any conclusion that communism itself is dead. Any Communist leader can point to great accomplishments in the country since 1917.

It is a safe bet that if the Russian people were asked to vote for or against communism, they would vote overwhelmingly for it. It wouldn't be 99.45 per cent, the way it is in the elections, but would be a monster vote. It is now their way of life.

WHERE THE JOBS ARE—Although automation has eliminated many jobs during the last ten years, it has also created many. Employment in the mining industry decreased 26.8 per cent, for example, but government employment increased 43.3 per cent, according to the U.S. Department of Labor. The Newschart shows significant increases and decreases.

Research Vehicle

Could Orbit Space Station In Five Years, Report Says

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A six-man space research station with built-in centrifuge, shower, kitchen, lavatory and other conveniences of home could be orbiting the earth within five years.

That's the conclusion of a report submitted to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration recently by the Douglas Co. missile and space systems division.

NASA last year commissioned Douglas and a main subcontractor, International Business Machines, to define a manned orbiting research laboratory which would test man's physical tolerance and proficiency under extended weightless conditions.

The station also must enable the crew to conduct scientific investigations and to study physical laws and phenomena which will affect the performance of future spacecraft and equipment.

Robert L. Johnson, Douglas vice president for research and engineering, said the proposed lab would orbit for more than a year more than 200 miles above the earth. It would be the size of a large house trailer and would be launched by a Saturn rocket.

The crew would travel to and from the station in modified two-man Gemini or three-man Apollo spacecraft. The six men would return to earth on a staggered schedule, to be replaced by other astronauts.

Johnson reported the laboratory has two provisions to help overcome long-term exposure to weightlessness and the possible adverse effects.

The entire laboratory can rotate slowly to provide a small degree of artificial gravity, Johnson said. In the center of the lab is an on-board centrifuge which can accommodate two men at a time. The centrifuge can whirl them to as high as nine times the force of gravity on earth to simulate re-entry forces, he said.

Space medical experts feel that a form of artificial gravity will be essential for astronauts making trips of a year or more to Mars or Venus. Otherwise, they believe muscle tone and other body systems might weaken so that they would not be able to withstand the re-entry.

Crew quarters and laboratory areas in the space station occupy a sphere-shaped inner pressure shell. The living area occupies half of the sphere and the working area the other half, with the centrifuge between.

There are accommodations for a crew of six, but the design permits comfortable temporary occupancy for eight—the number aboard during periods of crew exchange. There also is room for recreation and physical fitness activities.

The galley has facilities for reconstituting dehydrated food and for making hot and cold drinks. A small refrigerator permits storage of medical supplies and test samples.

"Don't touch Daddy's paper"

Every mother raises her children to respect the importance of today's newspaper. It goes with being Dad . . . having the whole family yield the daily paper until Dad himself has finished with it. And when he has finished with it, Mom and the children will take their turn at their favorite parts of the paper. None of your new-fangled inventions have eaten into the position the daily newspaper holds. A well-known study of the TV audience shows that "newspaper reading is the only form of mass communication which showed no reaction when TV sets were purchased." Whereas, the same study found, radio-listening, magazine reading and movie attendance went down when TV sets were purchased.
